Vol. 20 Corydon Central High School, Corydon, Ind., March 20, 1964 No. 7

Posters excellently designed by students in the art classes, under the direction of Mrs. Alice Eckart, added much to the Shakespearean atmosphere as members of the Drama Club read scenes from Shakespeare's plays. Depicted on posters are,

Drama Club To Present A Fantasy

The Dramatics Club will present the comedy - fantasy, Green Valley by Frank Watron, on April 17. The play will be directed by Mrs. Elam.

Green Valley is the story of a group of people witnessing an unbelievable change in their tiny valley, which is hidden away in the California Hills. Everything seems to have recovered from a strange, dormant period and the valley is now a blooming paradise of nature. Ever since anyone can remember, the Berry family has owned the valley; but now, the last of the line, Eldon Berry, is about to lose it at the hands of an unscrupulous land - grabber, Tobias J. Everheel.

Cast of Characters: The Live Ones:

Eldon Berry, with a "green thumb"; Prim Stokes, in love with Eldon and the Valley; Tinker Smith, a skinny, perplexed tractor driver; Tobias J. Everheel, a big and operator; Martha Mears, of the Historical Society; Eva Friese, an outspoken creamery maid.

from the Past:

Lonesome Berry, a '49er, mechanically inclined; Grampaw Berry, a wizened peppery frontiersman; Granny Berry, a sharp-eyed, sharp-tongued Mennonite; Calgun Berry, a gruff, bearded minvle; Jeb Berry, his stalwart, bearded brother; Ransome, a smaller, simple-minded brother; Prudence, an impish, witchy charmer.

Past Issues To Be Sold

Back issues of the Pantherette are available to people who wish to keep a record of their high school days. These issues of the school paper date back to 1960-61. As Corydon has a school paper instead of a year book, these Pantherettes are the only record senior has of his high school days. If you want a record to show your grandchildren, see Mrs. Jones in the journalism room and get your Pantherettes. Last year's cost of binding the copies was $5.40. Complete issues of 1960-61, 1961-62, 1962-63 will cost 50 cents; 1963-64 copies will cost $1.00.

R. Parker - P. Moss Win In Debate

Corydon had one winning team in the debate against Scottsburg here February 20. Richard Parker and Pat Moss debated the affirmative and won against Scottsburg students, Mark Carter and Lynn Rhoten, on the topic, "Resolved: That the Federal Government Should Provide Complete Medical Care at Public Expense." Mr. Bickel, social studies teacher, judged the debate. Nancy Kirkham acted as the chairman.

Mike Hans and Nina Garriott won the debate in which they took the affirmative against Terry Walls and Robert Benton. Nita Burgette was the chairman and Superintendent Schneider judged the debate.

Hungry Thieves Steal, Damage School Property

Having broken in and taken several sets of keys on Friday, February 21, thieves returned to the high school the next night, damaging and stealing several thousand dollars' worth of school property. A broken window in the art room may be where the thieves gained entrance.

Not only did the vandals steal and damage school property, but they also raided the school's icebox. Part of one of a dozen cooked hams to be used at a Lincoln Day Banquet the following Monday night, was eaten, and twenty bottles of milk were consumed.

Other stolen property included two typewriters, five adding machines, a Thermo-Fax copier, an audiometer, a microphone, a speaker, two record players, a fire extinguisher, a flash light, and the contents of two deep freezers including four turkeys and two 40-pound boxes of chicken. Doors and cabinets were damaged in the principal's and superintendent's offices, the library, the cafeteria, rooms 205, 206, 213, and 214.

Evidently the thieves were also basketball fans, because they unsuccessfully attempted to break into the superintendent's office safe which contained Salem sectional tickets, in addition to an undisclosed amount of cash. Although they did not succeed in opening it, the safe was so badly damaged that the school had to call a specialist from Louisville to open it.

D. Club Presents Variety Program

The Dramatics Club presented a variety program to the student body on February 27.

First in the program were students reading from Shakespeare. Joe Cato and Freda Clements read from "Macbeth"; Nancy Kirkham, "The Merchant of Venice"; Bob Benton, Mark Antony's funeral oration taken from "Julius Caesar"; and Pat Moss, "Hamlet."

Humerous monologues were given by Becky Webb, "Over The Dishpan" and by Deanna Miller, "The Right Answer at the Right Time."

"Witch of Coos," a poem by Robert Frost, was given by Carolyn Gieseler. A scene from Maxwell Anderson's play, "Wingless Victory," was presented by Terry Walls and Diana Grant.

Juniors Take National Scholarship Test

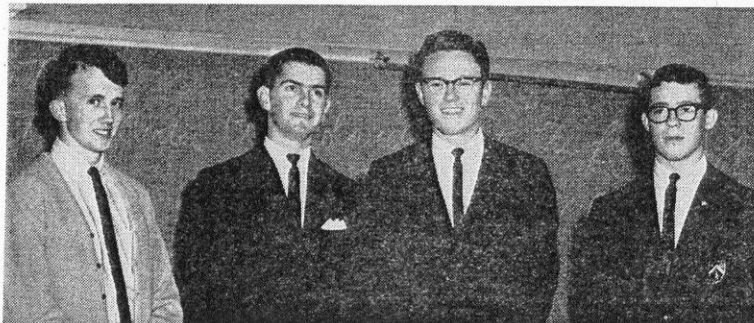

The two hour and fifty-minute long National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test was given to forty juniors March 11. The test was divided into five parts: English usage, mathematics, social studies, natural sciences, and word association.

Others who took the test were Robert Benton, Reaugh Kopp, Robert Watson, August Fleece, Pat Moss, Larry Pendleton, Jerry Parker, Terry Walls, Crissy Davis, Jane Douglas, Barbara Baxley, Margaret Meyer, Deloris Mitchell, Jim Mathews, Vernon Cline, Nancy Kirkham, Carol Gehlbach, Cynthia Forsythe, Phyllis McMonigle, and Alvin McKim.

The results of the test will probably be received during the last week of this school year; however, Mr. Norman will not counsel the students on the results until next September.

Breakfast Served In Room 204

Look into room 204 some morning, and you may feel you've wandered into the cafeteria by mistake. But no, dear friends, this is not the case. Look a bit closer, and you'll discover that the array of mouth-watering goodies inside the room is not made up of lunch food, but of breakfast fare.

Look even closer, and you'll discover that these goodies are rapidly being consumed by a tall young man with a ravenous light in his eye. His name? Howard Vivian Withers III, better known as "H. V."

It seems that H. V. is an avid believer in physical fitness. In order to keep himself physically fit he frequently pushes himself through the following rigorous routine.

Having slept late (sufficient rest is essential!), H. V. dashes to school with all the "vigah" and speed of an Olympic track star. Stopping on the way to take a few deep-breathing exercises, he purchases assorted pastries (quick energy, you know!) and that staff of good health—good old calcium-providing milk (helps build strong teeth and bones!), preferably a quart of chocolate.

At last, reaching the school building, H. V. ceases his exertions and wearily plods up the stairs to room 204 where exhaustion and hunger gain control. Here he earnestly strives to revive his spent energy; hence, the disappearing pastries and milk.

The late President Kennedy would surely have approved of our hero's "vigahrous" pursuit of physical fitness.

Sutherland Leads In Pest Killing

Danny Sutherland, a junior, was the over-all winner in the F.F.A. Pest Killing Contest, February 29, with a total of 8,375 points. Larry Day, senior, was the runner-up with 2,600 points. Keith Sutherland, sophomore, was third in the contest. Winner in the Freshman class was Don Pittman.

The Junior class was high with 37,040 points; Seniors followed with 28,150; Sophomores, 7,275; and Freshman, 4,390.

Public Speaking Contest

Bill Owen placed first in the Sub-District Freshman Public Speaking Contest held at North Central. He also placed fourth in the Senior Division of Public Speaking.

Delegates who participated were from Corydon, Milltown, North Central, and Morgan.

The F.F.A. members are building projects to enter in the fair this summer. Mr. Windell, teacher, is building a horse trailer; Carl Mathe, a dual wheel trailer; Danny Sutherland, a heavy duty farm wagon; and Larry Day, a gun rack.

Teen Code Controversy Assessed By A Senior

A Code of Ethics for Teenagers and parents have not formed their moral standards. Parents need some help in rearing their family over the Code. Some parents object to other people trying to tell them how to rear their children and trying to tell their children resent being told. Other youth feel that they are mature enough to judge between right and wrong for themselves—they don't need others telling them what to do. They say that the moral standards of youth should be determined individually. Others say that students do as they believe, not as they are instructed. Their background, the example of parents, the church instruction and individual beliefs make the person, not a code of ethics.

April Is Teachers Month

Teaching Career Month is a major annual nationwide effort to enhance the status of the teaching profession. Its primary purpose is to show the nation the importance of recruiting, preparing, and retaining the best possible teachers for America's schools and colleges.

Since 1958, Teaching Career Month has been observed yearly from April 1 to April 30, under the leadership of the National Education Association, its department, and its state and local affiliates. Though often confused with American Education Week, it is a distinct activity having its own emphasis. AEW, observed annually in November, is concerned with all the aspects of education and with special emphasis on the wide variety of topics included in the annual theme and daily topics. Teaching Career Month relates almost exclusively to teachers and teaching.

There are six objectives of Teaching Career Month:

1. To show that, for our country's survival, teaching must be the pre-eminent profession in American life.

2. To raise the prestige of teaching as a profession among students, teachers, parents, and the entire community.

3. To influence more good teachers to remain in the profession.

4. To inspire teachers to speak up for their profession and encourage others to become teachers.

5. To educate parents on the tremendous opportunities the teaching profession offers their children.

6. To encourage larger numbers of qualified youngsters to become teachers.

As the objectives show, Teaching Career Month is designed for all teachers, active or retired, and for those who are potential teachers. By emphasizing the teaching profession's "aim for excellence," Teaching Career Month encourages high quality teacher preparation and ultimately the overall improvements of public education.

What Makes A Winner?

Much is often said when the Panthers win rough basketball games, but little is said when the score reveals a loss. We feel now, after "winning" the Seymour game, much praise should be awarded—not just for the fine ability demonstrated by the team, but for their genuine sportsmanship. This year's team has been praised by many for their fairness and sincerity when playing.

Sometimes the competing aspect of the game brings out the worst in people, but the fans have responded tremendously. The calls were accepted; the fans cheered for the team—not the referees—and enjoyed watching a great season.

Often a team wins a game, but the score doesn't show it. This was true in the Seymour game. The Panthers showed their great skill and initiative. By their comeback in the last quarter of the game, the Panthers showed that they are winners.

Few teams in the state are so well followed by their fans as are the Panthers. Not only do the parents of the players themselves attend every game, but people interested in the sport, in the school, and in the community come to back our five.

The scoreboard says the Panthers lost, but we can feel just as proud of our boys as if they had won!

Achievement Tests To Be Given In April

The 1964 High School Achievement Program will cover all the former areas of testing—English, Latin, (one comprehensive test), Spanish (one comprehensive test), and Mathematics (one test in analytic geometry). In addition to these, examinations will be given in Chemistry, French, German, and History (two tests), and Government (four tests). The history tests are divided into the History of Western Civilization to 1715, the History of Western Civilization since 1715, and American History since 1865.

The examinations will be given on April 4 and April 18. On April 4 the English, European History, and American Government and Foreign Languages are scheduled. On April 18 American History, Analytic Geometry, American Government, Foreign Policy, Chemistry, and American History are planned.

Only high school seniors are eligible for the contests but they may write any or all examinations scheduled for different hours. A fee of $3 is charged for each examination. The English test will be a three-hour examination. All others will be two-hour tests. High ranking contestants and their teachers will receive invitations to Bloomington for an Honor program and lunch. Also certain college credit will be given to the top-ranking contestants at Indiana University toward their degree, they should attend I. U.

1964 Regional Seymour 67 — Corydon 65

STRATEGY! ... Completely oblivious of each other, Seymour and Corydon squads huddle in close quarters during a time out. The closeness of the game is reflected by the deadly serious attitudes of players and coaches on both teams. (Courtesy of Louisville Courier-Journal)

SAVED! ... Roger Jenkins (44) of Corydon blocks out Seymour's Charles Phillips (21) and grabs a hotly contested rebound. Phillips reaches determinedly for the ball but to no avail.

WITH CLOCKS TICKING AND HEARTS STOPPING, the Corydon cheerleaders sense the end as they watch Rich Gossett hit a pair of free throws to give the Owls a 67-63 advantage with 55 seconds to play. Corydon came back to close the gap to 67-65, and the regional semi-final game ended that way. The girls are (from left) Nancy Kirkham, Connie Rainbolt, Shirley Lawson, and Marilyn Brewster.

IHSAA COMMISSIONER PHIL ESKEW watches with pride as Corydon puts on a late rally that barely falls short of Seymour in Jeff regional play. Mr. Eskew is a brother of our own Miss Eskew, also a basketball enthusiast.

Names In The News

Mr. Robert Kirkham, a season veteran, spoke to Mrs. Bruner's World History class on February 11. The topic of the talk was the story of the Pacific Northwest, the told of Indian legends and merous incidents that had happened to him, Mr. Kirkham showed slides.

Mr. Saulman has begun to wish that Alexander Graham Bell had never been inspired to invent the telephone. The reason for this mormon lies with the quizzical as he receives at 11 at night or 9 o'clock in the morning from tried students who are eager to know "Is there going to be school now?" A principal's work is never done!

Judge C. Bliss Eskew addressed the FHA Elm Chapter at their meeting on February 11. His talk was on good citizenship and responsibilities of homemakers. He stressed what their goals toward better citizenship should be.

There's always room for one more! The sophomores have added new student this semester. It's Anita Williams. Connie came to us from New Albany, Indiana. She now resides at New Middletown. Skating, swimming, and seaback riding are among her favorite activities.

National FFA week was February 15 - 22. This year the emblem was put in the show case. It was drawn by Fred Wolfe and my Sutherland.

Friday the thirteenth isn't always unlucky, just ask the seniors. Rex Moonshower of the Ball State Company came with the apples from which the Seniors learned their invitations.

Mrs. Belle Bruner and David Sturbin visited Mrs. Ludlow's shman home economics class on January 31. David and Mrs. Bruner presented a demonstration proper introduction methods. The class was studying "Teenage etiquette."

Mrs. Velda Stilwell Wolfe, the District Home Service Representative of the Public Service Company of Indiana visited the senior home economics class March 4. Mrs. Wolfe brought projector slides bearing "Kitchen Planning."

Future Secretaries Visit L & N Offices, Appliance Park

Members of the secretarial training and clerical practice classes visited Appliance Park and the L & N offices in Louisville on Tuesday, March 3. Twenty-four girls, accompanied by Mrs. Wolfe, made the trip. The first stop was at the General Electric plant where the group was shown the assembly line of the automatic washing machine and dryer. They visited Monogram Hall where modern kitchens are displayed. Another interesting feature of the trip was the electronic calculating machines and "brains" in operation. The L & N offices showed the students their Univac machine and demonstrated how fast and accurately the machine works. Key punch, tabulating, verifying, and sorting were demonstrated. The girls were given a chance to see how the offices operate.

been changed to include all students having a B average. This student must carry at least 4 subjects and no grade on his card may be lower than a C. Below is the honor roll for the fourth grading period.

DANGER! Loyal Couples Hold Up Walls

We want to offer a word of thanks to the dear, loyal students who stand in the halls in the morning and at noon. These faithful couples protect us from serious danger by holding up the walls. (and each other)

We mustn't criticize them if we can't get to our locker, or if we trip over their feet, because fellow students, they're doing it all for us. We must remember that they are probably getting bored and need something for entertainment.

So, to you, dear couples, we the students at CCHS, are willing to forget (at least for a while) that we have to carry all our books so we won't disturb you at work. We know our arms aren't nearly as tired as yours are!!

RALLY BY CATS FALLS 2 SHORT

Despite a great rally, the Corydon Panthers fell 2 points short of gaining a berth in the finals of the Jeffersonville regional on Mar. 7, as the Seymour Owls edged the Panthers 67-65. After being 17 points down with 5:06 left in the game, the Cato-men cut the deficit to one point in 4 minutes by using a highly effective pressing defense. During the last minute, Seymour made one free throw which enabled the Owls to get a two point lead. They made this stand up for the victory as Corydon had 3 scoring opportunities but failed to cash in on any.

The first quarter was a stand-off as each team could only muster 9 points. In the second period Corydon's offense stayed almost as cold as they only managed 13 points. Meanwhile Seymour, behind Dick Gossett's 8 points, scored 21 second quarter points to race to a 30-22 half-time lead.

The third quarter was played on fairly even terms as Seymour made 21 points and Corydon got 19 points. With some hot shooting in the first three minutes of the fourth quarter, Seymour managed to build up a 17 point lead with 5:06 left in the game.

For the rest of game it was all Corydon as the Panthers, who were led by Duke Wolfe, outscored the Owls by 15 but still fell 2 points short of the talented Seymour crew.

Although giving away several inches per player, the Cats out-rebounded the taller Owls 44-39. Roger Jenkins and H. V. Withers led the rebounding chores for the Panthers with 12 and 9 rebounds respectively.

Dick Gossett paved the way for the winners with 25 points. He was supported by Phil Schroer and Charlie Phillips with 13 and 12 points. Seniors H. V. Withers and Dumont Wolfe closed out their high school careers with 25 and 20 points. They were backed up by Junior Roger Jenkins who had 13 points and also held high scoring Charlie Phillips to 12 points.

Led by Withers, the Panther rally continued into the final stanza. The score was knotted a couple of times, but Corydon was unable to take the lead.

Withers and Fried led the Panthers in scoring with 19 and 18 points respectively. Williams of Mitchell took game honors with 25

The Panthers roared to a 22-7 first quarter lead behind six straight baskets by Roger Jenkins. At this time it looked as though Pekin did not have a prayer. Rickard and Luse of Pekin, however, did not like that idea and threw in 7 and 6 points to lead the Musketeers in a rally which

Panthers Nip Millers To Take 4th Sectional

The Corydon Panthers won their third sectional championship in six years by slipping by Milltown 53-51. The outcome of the game, was as most people expected, but the game itself was quite different.

Right from the start the Millers made it apparent they were going to make a fight of it. With balanced scoring, the Millers surprised everyone by leading the Panthers 11-10 at the first stop. During the second period, the teams played on even terms, scoring fourteen points. This quarter was costly for the Panthers as Duke Wolfe was forced to leave the game for a time with a cut lip. In the third quarter it looked as though the Panthers might take charge of the game for good as they took a six point lead. However, eight points by Roger Combs cut Corydon's third quarter lead to 40-38. For the first five minutes of the final stanza the Millers pounded the Panthers and led by five points with 2:30 left in the game. Then the Panther rally started as Fried and Cato hit fielders to put the Panthers within one point. Fried then came through again with a tip in which put the Panthers on top by one. A stolen pass and basket by Phil Merk carried on the Corydon rally and gave them a 52-49 lead. Corydon's pressing defense then was responsible for a foul which was converted into two points by Roger Combs making the score 52-51. A Panther error then gave Milltown possession of the ball with 45 seconds remaining. A jump ball then went to the Panthers. As the game ended Merk was fouled. He hit his first attempt making the final score 53-51.

Students Apply For Membership On Summer Team

All baseball players who wish to play on the Raiders (Summer High School Baseball Team) this summer, please turn your name, address, phone number and birthdate into Mr. Saulman as soon as you can. This is for those who will be in high school next year only, not including this year's graduates (1964).

This year we are going to join the Association here in Southern Indiana. It is urgent that Coach Joe Miles has a list of players soon so that it can be established that we have enough to enter the League.

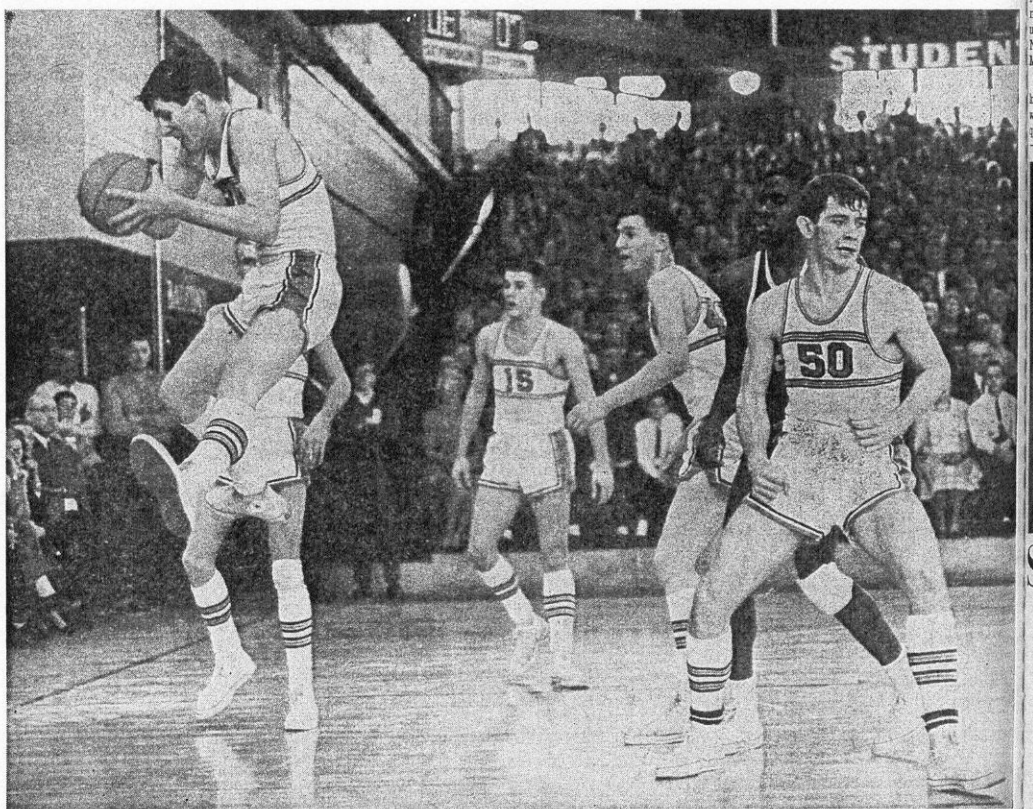

If you don't intend to practice, due to lack of interest on your part or are not willing to sacrifice, don't waste your time filling in an application. On the other hand, if you have plenty of interest and are willing to sacrifice, the team can use you.

Application blanks may be picked up at the office. All who have summer jobs can still play baseball, with a few alterations in regard to practice. ALL GAMES are on Sunday, and practice sessions can be set up in order to work in everyone.
