Linda Kirkham Chosen D.A.R. Good Citizen

Linda Kirkham was chosen by the senior students and the faculty to represent the school in the 1965, D.A.R., Good Citizen Contest.

The Good Citizen Contest is sponsored in the five Harrison County High Schools by the Hoosier Elm Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Only senior girls are eligible for the contest. The girls will take an examination on Saturday, November 20, to determine the Harrison County winner. Later the winner of the Harrison County award will compete in the State exam to select the Good Citizen for Indiana. The State winner will then compete in the National contest.

Linda is the president of the senior class and a member of the National Honor Society. She has been a member of the band for four years.

A cadet teacher, Linda helps Mrs. Roberts in the Kindergarten, each morning. She also tutors a grade school student after school each afternoon.

Linda has been an active member of 4-H Club for eight years. She will receive an academic diploma from CCHS next May.

Vice-Pres. Moves Up In Sr. Class

Linda Kirkham, who was chosen vice-president of the senior class earlier this fall, has assumed the responsibilities of president. Bill Fisher, who was elected president of the class in the September elections, has resigned. Bill leaves school at 1:00 to work and he found that the senior class president must be at school all day to satisfactorily fill the office.

Tim Kirkham defeated Cindy Steenbergen for the office of vice-president.

I.U. Students Will Present Discussion Prog.

"CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE AND SOCIAL INJUSTICE" will be the subject of a discussion program which will be given Friday afternoon for juniors and seniors. Special emphasis in the discussion will be given to college students' demonstrations.

The participants will be outstanding students from Indiana University who have been recommended by a faculty member to the Speakers Bureau. Any faculty member may recommend an outstanding member to the director of the Speakers Bureau. Each student is then given an audition. Those then chosen receive faculty assistance in preparing a speech for one of the programs.

The bureau, sponsored by the department of Speech and Theatre, provides discussion programs for local civic clubs and schools. In addition, it offers Indiana University students an opportunity to express their beliefs about current state, national, and international affairs to local audiences.

Dr. J. Jeffery Auer, chairman of the Department of Speech and Theatre, heads the faculty directors.

The I. U. group will be at CCHS for the discussion at 1:30 p.m.

M. Forsythe To Report To WKLO

Melissa Forsythe, a sophomore, has been selected by radio station WKLO to represent CCHS as school reporter. Each contestant sent a letter to the station telling about the offices and activities in their high school in which he or she is engaged in. After studying all the applicants, reporters were chosen from each school. The radio station will call Melissa every other Wednesday night at 9:00 and she will report all the happenings and forthcoming events.

Nat'l Honor Society To Stimulate Academic Growth

The National Honor Society has been reorganized after two years of inactivity. To become a member of this club one has to be at least a B student, be in the top 15 percent of the senior class, or in the top 5 per cent of junior class, and be recommended by the teachers. The purpose of the club is to stimulate academic growth and achievement.

There are seventeen members of this club. They are seniors Virginia Crosier, Diana Gibson, Nancy Keller, Linda Kirkham, Helen Lefler, Carla Miles, Deanna Miller, Teresa Norman, Diana Richert, Elizabeth Ward, and Kathy Wilson; junior members, Mary Brockman, Judy Cato, John Jackson, Mary Kraft, John Mathews, and Denise Melton.

The officers of the Club are Virginia Crosier, president; Carla Miles, vice-president; Elizabeth Ward, secretary; and Diana Gibson, treasurer. Mr. Cato is the sponsor.

MR. A. WINDELL HOLDS EVENING WELDING CLASS

Mr. Arthur Windell will begin a class in Welding for adults on Monday evenings beginning November 22, 7:30 p.m. The cost of this course will be fifty cents a session and the classes will meet once a week for ten weeks.

Notice of the classes appeared in last week's County papers and already more adults have indicated an interest in the work than can be accommodated in one class.

Former students of Mr. Windell who have taken the course in flat, vertical, and overhead welding have an excellent record in obtaining jobs in this line of work.

Student Council Chooses Assembly Program For '66-67

The Student Council has chosen the assembly programs for the school year of 1966-67. During the first semester the students will see Kobelle, the magician; the Stergelles with their folk music from around the world; and an organist. In the second semester, Tom Grin, a young photographer; Mickey the monkey; Gean Kouaneir, a girl scuba diver; and a program on physical fitness.

Another subject discussed by the members of Student Council was the commotion created by certain students during the assembly programs. A few people are more interested in the daily gossip than in who's performing. No solution was given for this age old problem.

The Student Council again invites members of the student body to discuss with them any problem that students might feel the Council could help solve.

Future Nurses' Leukemia Drive Is Successful

A Leukemia drive in downtown Corydon added $84.68 to the fund for the fight against not only leukemia, but also other child crippling diseases. The drive was held by the Future Nurses Club, Saturday, October 23. Although the club wasn't able to complete the drive by a house-to-house collection as planned, they were successful in their work at the road blocks of the main intersections of Corydon. The total collection will be turned over to Mrs. Edward H. Fishman, the National Campaign Officer for the organization aiding leukemia stricken American children.

Hi-Fi Talent Contest To Be Held Nov. 27

The Hi-Fi Talent Contest will be November 27 in the school cafeteria. The annual Hi-Fi Dance is sponsored by the Coca-Cola Company and broadcasted on radio station WKLO. Five acts have entered the contest but only four acts can be recorded the night of the dance and played at a later date on WKLO. Acts that have signed up are: Gary Deaton, Greg Fetz, Bill Mauck, Bill Hook, and Mike Bennett forming a rock and roll combo.

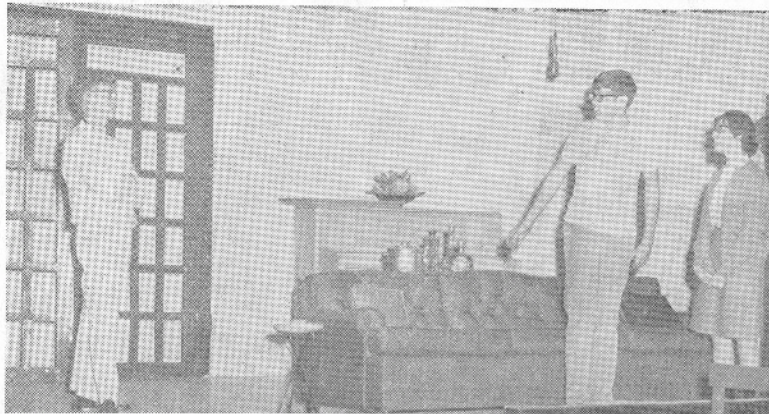

Three solo singers are Sharon Mauck, Mona Rothrock, and Diane Reimold. Anita Fisher, Carol Miller, and Diana Smith will sing with Deanna Miller accompanying on the piano.

Energetic Students Work In Free Time

Many students are learning through experience here at school. Students can work in the office, they can be librarians, or they may work in the cafeteria. There is still a need for workers in the cafeteria. A person working in the lunch room receives free lunches and also is paid by the hour. Billy Martin is the only student who works during the lunch hour. Anyone who is free the 4th period and is interested in working should contact Mrs. Windell.

Students working as librarians are Diane Gibson, Sandy Shewmaker, Bill Sillings, and Bertie Godby, who is doing her cadet teaching as librarian.

Connie Rainbolt, Elizabeth Ward and Cindy Steenbergen assist Mrs. Cato in the principal's office. Their duties are to do typing, answer the telephone, make change and other general office duties.

Joe Pendleton (alias Mike Shireman) gives orders to Delbert Hayden as Barbara Pinaire looks on infatuated. The play "Heaven Can Wait" was given November 5 by the Dramatic Club.

OPINIONS

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Here We Go Again '65-'66

Dear Editor

Every year, about this time, familiar things start to happen around Corydon Central High School. Mrs. Jones runs downstairs and fires up her popcorn machine. Teachers stand guard at the doors with their little ticket punchers. Max Rusk raises his voice in support of our team. What's going on? Ask anybody—it's basketball season.

"New" is a good word to describe our Panthers this year. We have a new coach, John Wood, a small man with large talents, who hails from Charlestown and Greensburg, where, collectively, he had a record of 130 wins (including two sectional crowns) and 95 losses.

Our new line-up had only two regulars returning from last year—Bill Kirkham and Alan Hess. Rounding out the five are Tom Butt, Donnic Conrad, and Ireland Scott. Although these boys are new as starters, they all have ample experience from past years as do reserves John Walters, Harold Chumley, Tim Kirkham, Danny Utz, Monty Schneider, and Mike Bennett.

Last year two freshmen played great ball. This year another freshman, Doug Bates, shows signs of doing the same thing.

Coach "Mick" Frederick, a former CCHS star, will be guiding the Cubs this year. While Coach Cato, former varsity mentor, will be at the helm of the frosh team.

Coach Wood is confident that the Panthers will shape up into a fine ball club. We will help the Panthers reach this goal if we back them all we can.

Dear Editor

The best assembly of the year presented Mr. Chester Cwiertnia and his great trumpet. Although his trumpet playing was fabulous, it was surpassed by his singing. The students on the whole seemed to enjoy the assembly, although there were a few who didn't like it and kept others from enjoying it by talking, and making rude noises. These people don't appreciate assemblies and shouldn't be allowed to attend them. They use this time to talk and discuss trivialities. The study hall is always open to those who don't want to see the assemblies. Why don't these people go to the study hall if they don't want to listen and let the ones who want to listen enjoy the program.

Future Nurses Visit Nortons

Kathy Wilson and Alice Harrell represented the CCHS Future Nurses at an open house at Norton's Infirmary. The students were taken on a tour of the hospital and shown demonstrations of hospital techniques. Afterwards refreshments were served.

Accidents Take Toll Of Students

"Why are so many boys bandaged up like mummies" has been a question asked by visitors recently at CCHS. Some students have wondered how they might acquire these interesting looking wrappings. Just ask Frank Eckart how he acquired the one on his leg, or inquire about the one on Randy Leuty's hand, or ask Mario how he obtained the one on his leg, and don't forget Jim McGraw who was the victim of the "Mauck Roll."

Randy's cast was necessary after the Clarksville football game. Someone made the mistake of stepping on his hand when he wasn't looking.

Mario's leg was broken by his brother Franko, in a pre-game practice. Mario must have been mistaken for a tackling dummy.

When Roger Mauck rolled on Jim McGraw, Roger's weight was felt and the result was a broken ankle. In the future Jim will stay out of Roger's path.

Frank Eckart didn't break his leg on the football field, but broke it when he hit a car while riding on his motorcycle. Frank has given up motorcycle riding for awhile.

Convict Escapes!

The young man quietly puts his pencil away. His escape has been carefully planned for hours. He closes the book in front of him, and stacks it with his others. He does not make any noise, for he must not be seen. Anxiously, he looks at the stern face of his captor. She does not seem aware of his intense preparations. He steals a glance at the clock. Thirty more seconds! His muscles tense. He picks up his books and gets ready for the break.

Now! He leaps up and sprints to the door. After all, he is running for his life. The corridor is long, but at the end is his goal—the parking lot. The scent of victory is in his nostrils. He rounds the corner. There is a collision with a teacher. He realizes then that all is lost. He is still standing there getting a lecture long after the other students have left.

Seniors Take College Boards

"Oh well, I didn't want to go to college anyway." "I guess I had better be filling out job applications." "I've never felt so dumb in all my life."

These were a few of the comments heard as seniors from Harrison and Floyd county schools left the New Albany High School after taking their college entrance exams.

Around 30 CCHS seniors took this test.

The Indiana colleges requested that students who are going to try for scholarships take the entrance exam in November. Students who are not trying for a scholarship

History Of Corydon Schools 1838 - 1928

In 1838 the school of Corydon moved from the Old Treasury building to an upstairs room in the house that is now occupied by the Griffin Family. In 1839 the same Mr. Hutchins taught a boys' school in the Old State Capitol Building.

In 1839 the Harrison County Seminary building was thought unfit for school purposes and in 1845 the Lutheran Church building was purchased. This church stood in the grove of trees just south of the present Grade School building. Classes were held here until the building burned about the time of the Civil War.

A new large building was erected to take the place of the one that burned. This building had two stories with two rooms above and two below and hallways on the north side. The number of pupils increased gradually, until in 1886 larger quarters were needed and a large assembly room was added to the north side of the hall with two class rooms over it. While this addition was being built to the school, classes were held at the Fairgrounds. The high school met in the old "Long Hall" and the lower grades met in the "Round Hall".

About 1908, the Ohio Valley Normal College building was purchased, improved, and fitted, for high school. This old college building stood just north of the present Jr. High building.

The grade school still held classes in the old frame building at the corner of Mulberry and Walnut Streets until January, 1915 when the present grade building was completed and occupied.

This new grade building was equipped with a gymnasium for basketball and was quite an improvement, even though we look back on it today as a small box-shaped affair. For that reason it was called the "Bull Pen". Prior to that time, basketball practice had been done in the assembly hall at the high school.

By the early 1920's the old high school building, which had formerly been used as the Ohio Normal College, was thought unfit for use. Plans were drawn for a modern building to be built "under the hill" fronting Chestnut Street. This new building was completed when school commenced in the fall of 1928. The outside appearance of the building was criticized sharply by many. People said that the building had no architectural beauty and resembled a factory, or if it had a fence around it, it would look like a prison. Therefore many students of that day referred to their place of higher learning as the "Soap Factory" or the "Corydon Public Penitentiary No. 2."

may take the test in December. Students in Harrison county schools and a few schools in adjoining counties may take the December test at Corydon Central.

Thanksgiving Time Will Soon Be Here

That good full feeling that comes with Thanksgiving will soon be here. The women of the family can be heard all talking at once over the clatter of dishes. The delicious smell of Tom Turkey will keep the mouths of both young and old watering. One by one the male members of the family will sneak into the kitchen to get a glimpse of the big bird as Grandma opens the oven door.

The living room will be packed with uncles and cousins all watching the 21 inch TV set in the far corner of the room.

Meanwhile, back in the kitchen a hot debate will be going on over how much spice to put in the pumpkin pies. Each Aunt has her own way of doing each job best, but the final say will be given by Grandma.

It seems an eternity until the pies come out of the oven, the potatoes are finally mashed, and the dumplings are done. Then the long awaited moment will come. The oven door will open slowly and there in all his tasty glory is Mr. Thomas Turkey.

When Aunt Minerva proudly announces to the living room crowd that all is ready, the stampeede is on. Naturally little Horatio is the first at the table and pokes his fists into the tempting dishes. He is quickly followed by the remainder of the mob of little monsters, all screaming for the drumstick. Finally the grownups file in and take their places around the huge table. For a moment there is a moment of silence while the blessing is asked, but this is soon broken by Johnny's loud, "I want the drumstick."

The feast is on. Uncle Henry solves the problems of the drumsticks by taking one for himself and handing the other to Uncle Bill.

Objections rise from the younger set, who are soon quieted by a little tact on the part of mother. Plates are piled higher and higher as the food is passed from one end of the table to the other. Diets are forgotten as the clink of dishes ring out loud and clear.

Then all too soon, the feast is over and everyone is full and sleepy. It is then that you realize just how good we have it in America.

BABY BYRD FINDS HOME

A little Byrd flew into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Byrd (Betty Winterkorn).

Susan Elizabeth Byrd, was born on Sunday, November 14, weighing nearly 7 pounds.

Women faculty members and grandmothers were present recently at a baby shower held at the home of Mrs. Robert Love. Mrs.

Mrs. Wolen finally caught in the act of murdering flies with her hammer. Enjoying the murder are Bob Feller and Jack Enlow.

Demonstrators — The "In" Crowd

The most noteworthy fad of 1965 is protesting. A few months ago, young people were demonstrating against racial discrimination. Now they are protesting the involvement of the U. S. in Viet Nam. As a result, a new style of music has evolved - folk rock. This style of music, as one might guess from the name, is a combination of folk music and rock n' roll. The leader of this type of music is folk singer Bob Dylan, and his style is copied by Donovan, Sonny and Cher, Barry McGuire, and others. The songs protest about everything. The use of protest and demonstration is of immense value if people are sincere. But how many people are sincere? Are they demonstrating because they believe, or because it is "in"? In far too many cases, it is the latter.

In previous years, fads were fun and also relieved tension. Who can forget screaming and throwing jelly beans at the Beatles? Another such unforgettable experience was the mastery of the hoola hoop. Packing a telephone booth or Volkswagen was the rage on college campuses several years ago.

These things were trivial, but they harmed no one. No feelings were hurt, and no causes were harmed. While a return to the Beatles is not advocated here, it is to be preferred to demonstrating merely because it is "in".

Magazine Sales Help Purchase Band Uniforms

Magazine sales have been completed by the members of the high school band. They reached a goal of $756.

The high salesman in the high school was Sandy Watson, a freshman, with $91.39.

The four bands of the corporation made over $2100. These bands will make approximately one-third of this profit, plus a fifty dollar bonus. This profit will go toward the buying of new band uniforms.

Music Tests Are Taken By Students

A Music Aptitude Test, given by Mr. Trueblood and Mr. Norman, was taken by about 20 students.

Two types of tests were given in a room which had to be perfectly silent. One test was the playing of a record from which the students had to count the number of beats. On the other test, the students had to tell how certain notes, played to them by record, were alike or different.

Love, Mrs. Gail Enlow, and Mrs. Peggy Fluhr were the hostesses.

Chance - Probability Is Math Club Topic

Chance and probability was the topic which Elizabeth Ward discussed at a recent Math Club meeting.

Everyone comes into contact with probability in everyday life but possibly doesn't realize it. We may say we took a chance crossing a street or that we took a chance on a raffle, but we're really talking about probability. The probability that you will get hit by a car when you cross the street increases if the street is heavily travelled and decreases if it is a seldom used street. Your chances in a raffle depend upon how many people enter it. If one thousand enter your chances are one in a thousand. That's not too good and nine hundred ninety-nine times out of a thousand you have just thrown your money away.

Everyone has tossed a coin or thrown dice. The probabilities of whether you get heads or snake-eyes can be determined in math by using the formula for probability.

Statistics will be the subject discussed at the next meeting. Helen Leffler will be the speaker.

Ed. Development Tests Given Sophs

The Iowa Test of Educational Development (ITED) was given to the sophomores November 16 and 17.

These tests are intended for administration in an annual testing program to all pupils in grades nine through twelve. The major purposes of the tests and of the testing program are as follows:

First, to enable teachers to keep more reliably acquainted with the educational development of each high school pupil. Such knowledge will make it easier to adapt instruction and guidance to each pupil's peculiar and changing needs.

Second, to provide the school administrators with a more dependable and objective basis for evaluating the total educational offering of the school. The testing program will point up any need for curriculum revision that may exist.

Y - TEENS

World Fellowship Observed With Skit Donation To Fund

World Fellowship Week is being observed by YWCA's in every continent and in most countries around the world during the week of November 14-20. At the regular Y-Teen meeting Monday, Nov. 15, the Y-Teens presented a one-act skit stressing World Fellowship. The girls participating were Sharon Mauck, Diane Reimold, Debbie Ferguson, Paula McCarty, Linda Fulkerson, and Diane Emily. After the skit the club voted to send $10 to this World Fellowship Fund which helps advance our world toward the goals of peace and freedom for all.

Y-Teens Hold Initiation

The Y-Teens had an initiation party in the cafeteria Wednesday night, Nov. 10. Becky Eckart, Mary Mathes, Debbie Carter, and Mona Rothrock were in charge of initiation and games. The following girls were initiated: Linda Adams, Sharon Mauck, Debbie Ferguson, Marilyn Froman, Patty Wiseman, Linda Stamper, Betty Kennison, Betty Feller, Paula West, Shirley Fluhr, and Linda Wiseman.

After the initiation and games, the girls enjoyed dancing. Refreshments of soft drinks and potato chips were served.

Homemade Candy Will Be For Sale

The Y-Teen girls will sell homemade candy at the first home basketball game Friday night with West Washington.

P. S. A. T. Test Given Jr. - Sr.

The Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) was administered Tuesday, October 19 to the juniors and seniors.

The PSAT is designed primarily to help high school juniors and seniors estimate their ability to do college-level work, to guide them in making their college plans, and to familiarize them with multiple choice tests.

The PSAT is a shorter version of the College Board's Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) required for admission to over 600 colleges.

Standing are Mrs. Margaret Sims, Indianapolis; Lillie B. Schulz, Floyd County Schools, New Albany; Helen Russel, Southport High School; Wreatha Butler, Washington Township, Indianapolis; Vera McClure, Pike Township, Indianapolis.

Mrs. Glenna Windell, supervisor of the high school lunch program, was hostess to a Council of Professional School Lunch Supervisors, October 28.

These twelve members of the Council exchanged ideas on how to improve the school lunch needs and how to prepare for the challenges of tomorrow. Schools that were represented by these women are as follows: Mesdames Rowings, Wayne Township Schools, Indianapolis, Indiana; Nadine V. Kirkpatrick, New Castle Community Schools, New Castle, Indiana; Beulah Meyers, Missiseneva Community Schools, Gas City, Indiana; Ann Owens, Logansport Community Schools, Logansport, Indiana; Glenna Windell, Corydon Central High School, Corydon, Indiana; Mildred Harrington, Indianapolis City Schools, Indianapolis, Indiana; Amo Bower, Carmel Schools, Carmel, Indiana.

Basketballers Start Home Season Tonight

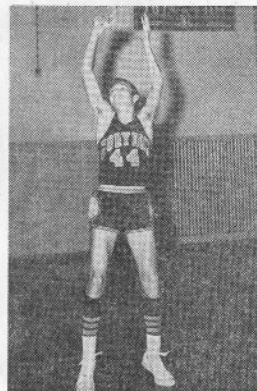

TOM BUTT is the only senior letterman returning from last season. Tom isn't too big, weighing in at 145 pounds, height 5'11", but he has tremendous jumping ability. Tom was active in basketball, track and cross country as a freshman. During his sophomore year he participated in basketball, and lettered in football and track. He added a letter his junior year and won a letter in all three sports. As a senior he has lettered in football and should be a starter on the varsity. He also plans to go out for track.

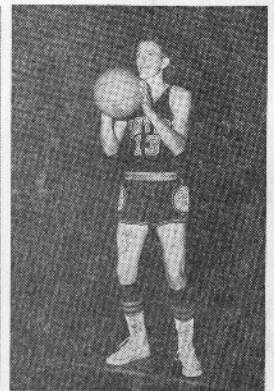

HAROLD CHUMLEY, senior, stands 5'11", and weighs 150 pounds. During his freshman and sophomore years Harold played basketball, baseball, and ran cross country. As a sophomore he lettered in baseball. Because of illness last year, Harold was not able to participate in many sports. He plans to go out for baseball in the spring.

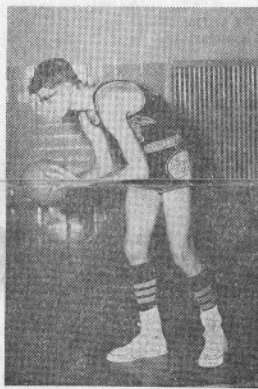

JOHN WALTER, a senior on the squad, stands 6 feet tall and weighs 150 pounds. John has been playing basketball since he was a freshman. During his sophomore year John added golf to his extra curricular activities, and earned a varsity letter in this sport.

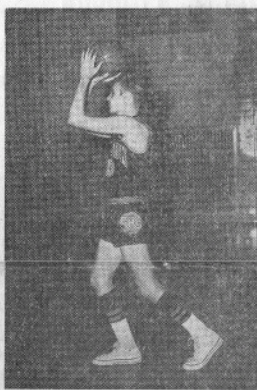

TIM KIRKHAM is the largest senior on the squad. He is 6'1" and weighs 150 pounds. Tim moved to Corydon his junior year. He has participated in cross country and basketball and this year will add golf to his athletic program.

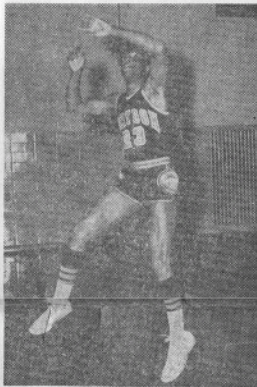

DONNIE CONRAD, a senior, is the smallest member of the basketball squad. He checks in at 5'9" and weighs 145 pounds. He has participated in basketball his freshman, junior and senior years. Donnie is vying for a starting position on the squad.

BILL KIRKHAM, 6'2", 140 pound sophomore, plays guard position. Bill seems to have a very promising athletic career. As a freshman, he earned a starting position on the varsity basketball squad and participated in the sectional. Also a leading golfer of the community, Bill went on to enter the golf state finals held in Indianapolis last summer.

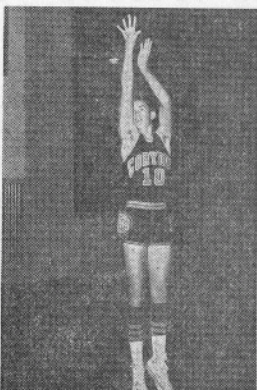

ALAN HESS, a 6 foot - 160 pound sophomore, has had a good athletic season. As a freshman he led the cross country team and was also a starter in several games on the varsity basketball team. He also lettered in track and baseball. He participated in both the cross country and basketball sectionals.

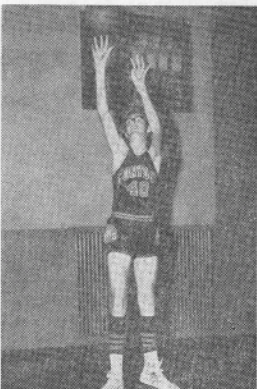

IRELAND SCOTT, a junior, is an even 6' and weighs 160 pounds. He has played basketball since he entered Junior High. He lettered in the sport his sophomore year, and was a member of the team at the Salem sectional. Ireland also lettered in track as a sophomore. He will go out for track again this year.

DANNY UTZ is a 6'1", 165 pound junior. Danny is sure to see a lot of basketball action in the future. He has played basketball ever since he was a freshman. Last year he made the trip to the Salem sectional.

MONTY SCHNEIDER, sophomore, stands 5'10" and weighs 135 pounds. As a freshman Monty ran cross country, track and played baseball and basketball. He won letters in all four sports. This year Monty has run cross country and played basketball. He is sure to see quite a great deal of action on the court this year. Track and baseball will be added to his schedule later this year.

MIKE BENNETT, a sophomore, is the tallest boy on the squad at 6'3". Although Mike is the tallest, he is by no means the heaviest. He weighs 155 pounds. He has participated in basketball and cross country during both his freshman and sophomore years. He received a varsity letter during his first year at CCHS.

Wood Makes New Experience Will Boost Panthers During Season

By JOHN MATHEWS

There is more to participating in sports than meets the eye. It takes weeks, months, and sometimes even years of hard work and endurance on the part of the athletes. Along with hard practice comes knowing the rules and regulations. Coach Wood has laid down certain training rules for the Panthers. The new rules have been issued for the player this year.

Some of the new rules are: Curfew at ten o'clock other than Saturday night which is eleven. There is to be no walking girls to class or around the halls in the morning. Of course, they must keep their hair cut short so they can see the basket. These rules are very strict and very hard on the boys. Girls and parents should realize this and help boys obey these rules. Any girl or parent who encourages a boy to break these rules should realize that they are being disloyal to the school.

Despite a strong rally in the 4th quarter, the Corydon Panthers lost their first basketball game of the season to Scottsburg. After letting the opponents get the lead early in the game, the Cats were never able to close the gap made by Warrior sharpshooters Borden and Spoonmore.

The Panthers line-up consisted of guards, Donnie Conrad and Bill Kirkham, forwards Alan Hess and Tom Butt, and center Ireland Scott.

Corydon's top scorer was Bill Kirkham, who sank two field goals and tossed in 7 out of 11 free throws for a total of 11 points. Kirkham was followed by Butt with 8 and Scott with 7. Also, Butt and Scott were the best rebounders, hauling in 10 and 8 respectively. Sophomore Monty Schneider hit 100% of his free throws for a total of 4 points and freshman Doug Bates turned in a fine first performance worth 4 points.

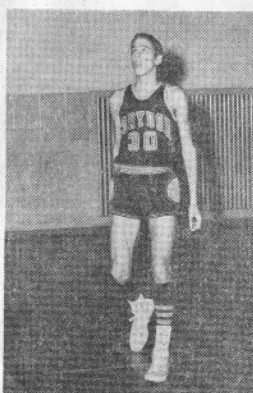

With 3 minutes left to play and with the score 44-39 for Scottsburg, the Warriors threw a stall. The Cats rallied until they trailed only 4 points. But, after losing Hess to fouls and with so little time left, the gap proved too much to close.

Generals Defeat Panthers In Closing Game

The Corydon Panthers were handed their eighth defeat in 9 games at the hands of the Clarksville Generals.

DOUG BATES, the only freshman on the team, checks in at 5'11" with 145 pounds. Hopes are high that Doug will make a valuable player. He participated in cross country and has been selected as one of the varsity ball players. He will also go out for the baseball and track teams later.

Coach Frederick's Cubs also lost their first game to Scottsburg, the score being 52-39. Frosh Steve Hurst proved his value by supplying some smooth ball handling when it was needed.
