

Bennett Portrays "Lincoln the Man"

"The Man Who Knew Lincoln" will be presented by Kirk Bennett in an assembly program October 13. Mr. Bennett takes you realistically through the life of Abraham Lincoln in his character interpretation of "Billy Brown" who ran the store where "Lincoln". Little Doug "Logan" Judge Davis used to gather around the stove. Kirk Bennett, with years of experience on the American stage with such stars as Bette Davis, Rosalind Russell and many others in score of Broadway production. . . assures you his ability as a dramatic artist — to give you a real treat in his dramatic presentation of this beautiful story.

Mr. Bennett has done a great amount of research into the unlimited amount of data on Lincoln, including visits to places where Lincoln lived and worked. He gained many of his facts from conversations with the descendants of Lincoln's friends. He now has a famous collection of old photographs and valuable relics of the period.

Mr. Bennett succeeds in hundreds of presentations of this program shows that the dramatic presentation of the program is entertaining as well as educational.

The program is the first of eight assembly programs which will be given before the student body during the school year.

The public is invited to attend any of these performances which are provided by the Antrim Bureau.

Richard Thomas News Analyst Will Speak Nov. 5

RICHARD THOMAS, a foreign correspondent, who has been reporter, editor, radio writer, and TV newscaster will present an assembly in the gym Tuesday, Nov. 5.

Mr. Thomas was educated at Harvard College, the Harvard Business School and the University of Paris. He is a linguist, has taught school both here and in Europe, and made a thorough study of educational problems on three continents. In all, he has lived and traveled in more than one hundred foreign countries and important overseas possessions. Mr. Thomas has come to know the men of the world, and has interviewed thousands of natives in Europe, Asia, Africa, the Pacific, and the three Americas.

In July, 1960, he journeyed once again to the troubled Middle East, and now has an eye-opening report on that area. On this same trip, he penetrated deep into the heart of the U.S.S.R., where he visited plants, mills, factories, schools, libraries, and homes; and came face-to-face with the average Soviet citizen. His escapades in Siberia, Mongolia, and Communist China, which nearly brought a brilliant career to a sudden close, invariably have his listeners on the edge of their seats. It is scarcely surprising that observers have dubbed Richard Thomas "the most brilliant young man on the American lecture platform today."

SYMPATHY

The members of the faculty and student body wish to extend their deepest sympathy to Jo Ann Allen, a senior, whose father, William Allen, passed away Thursday, October 3.

Mrs. Roberts Speaks To Speech I Class

Mrs. Henry Roberts spoke to the Speech I class on Monday, October 14, on the subject of "The Value of Speech Training for Any Work." Mrs. Roberts who taught physics, chemistry, and mathematics for seven years, also worked with emotionally disturbed girls in New York City. She and her husband are now retired and they live on Chestnut Street in Corydon.

Mrs. Roberts used many examples in showing how public speaking is needed in all occupations. She gave the main points everyone should strive for in taking a speech course.

It is important to be able to ask good questions and to express one's self clearly. Also one should be able to pronounce words clearly and to organize material for presentation.

Students Assist In Reading Lab

Nancy Keller, Nita Burgette, John Daily, Jim Byrns, Libby Frederick, and Barbara Hoback are helping Mrs. Belle Bruner in 201 with the SRA Reading Laboratory.

SRA Reading Laboratories are developmental, multilevel learning materials especially designed to enable each individual student to start where he is in reading achievement, and to have the opportunity to move ahead as fast and as far as his learning rate and capacity will let him.

The Reading Laboratory enables nearly every student to improve his present reading ability both in rate and comprehension because little improvement takes place when students are reading materials that are either too hard or too easy for them.

Students who are participating in the Reading Laboratory will begin "where they are" in independent reading and be allowed to master the skills of that level at their own rate. A sequence of materials will be provided of gradually increasing difficulty so that the students can seek and attain progressively higher reading levels.

The Reading Laboratory will be open during all six periods.

Teachers Will Work While Students Relax

Students will have a vacation, Oct. 24 - 25, while the teachers attend the 110th Annual Convention of the Indiana State Teachers Association. Most of the teachers will attend the convention at Parkview Junior High School in Jeffersonville. The main speakers of the convention will be William C. Sullivan, assistant director of Federal Bureau of Investigation and Dr. Max Lerner, correspondent of the New York Post. Mr. Sullivan will speak on Communism and Education. Dr. Lerner's address will be Education in an Age Overkill.

The departmental sessions will be held on Friday, October 25. Mrs. Belle Bruner and Mr. Ray Noe will be chairman and vice-chairman respectively of Latin and Modern Languages department. The main speaker will be Dr. Donald Lloyd associate professor of English at Wayne State University, Detroit. Mrs. Hilda B. Meyer, English teacher at the Corydon Junior High School and Mr. George Merk, principal at Corydon Junior High School will be the chairman and vice-chairman respectively of the Language Arts department. The main speaker will be Mrs. Kate Rutherford, former Indiana University speech teacher.

SYMPATHY

Expressions of sincere sympathy from the faculty and students of CCHS are extended to the family of Robert C. Watson, who passed away unexpectedly October 3 at Harrison County Hospital. A son, Bob Watson, is a junior here.

Panther Uprising Is '64 Float Theme

"Panther Uprising" is the theme of the 1964 senior float.

The senior football players, Dwight Bennett, Richard Windell, Richard Parker, Curtis Pearl, David Eastburn, Jim Byrnes, and Ralph Timberlake will ride on the float. Marilyn Brewster and Shirley Lawson, the senior cheerleaders, will honor the float with their feminine presence.

The float is being constructed by senior members of the fifth and sixth period art classes. They are Pat Rowland, Naomi Pitman, Freda Clements, Marie Brown, Brenda Neafus, Brenda Stonecipher, Dwight Bennett, Jim Adams, Sam Mansfield, Janet Byerly, P. A. Brown, Pat Hartman, Sonja Stonecipher, Kaye Longacre, Carolyn Greer, Jerry Conrad, Robert Conrad, Earl Stout, Teddy Stienner, Dorothy Martin, Janet Montgomery, Ronnie Reas, and Pete Hardsaw.

Robert Edelen, Larry Greer, Jerry Kitterman, Buddy Madden, David Froman, Bill Mathers, Lynn Redden, Betty Trent, Barbara Wheat, Larry Wiseman, and Carol Pearson are also helping.

Chicken wire, newspapers and wheat paste are being used to construct the float. The Panther will be made from paper mache.

Seniors Head For The Forest

The Seniors are planning a fall picnic, instead of the regular fall dance. The party will be held on October 18 at the State Forest. Members of the planning committee are Ricard Parker, president; Donna Schillmiller, vice president, and Carol Cunningham, John D. Daily, Mary Lou Seipel, and Dwight Bennett.

Entertainment is being planned by Dwight Bennett, John D. Daily, Jim Byrns, Clara Curtis, and Shirley Lawson. Donna Schillmiller, Carol Cunningham, Larry Dyer, Donnie Schuppert, and Virginia Robertson are on the refreshment committee.

The faculty sponsors are Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Elam, Mr. A. Windell, Mr. Bickel, Mrs. Enlow, and Mr. Noe. Mr. Noe is the chairman of the fall picnic.

Drama Club's First Play Is A Comedy

The Courtship of Eddie's Father, a comedy in two acts, will be presented November 1 at 8:00 p.m. by the Dramatics Club, under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Elam.

Young widower Tom Corbett is asked by his son Eddie, "Don't you think it's time you got married again? A growing boy needs a mother and a lonesome young man needs a pretty wife!"

Eddie takes it upon himself to find suitable candidates. He especially likes the lovely nurse Elizabeth, but she and Tom always seem to be at odds with each other. He also favors Dolly Daly, an appealing and friendly beauty contest winner whom he and his father met in a supermarket. Both these attractive young women are also very fond of Eddie, but Tom is apparently oblivious to either of them; he, instead, has his eye on the stunning, sophisticated Rita Behrens who is determined to woo Tom away from his son.

While visiting Eddie at summer camp, Tom breaks the news that he intends to get married soon. Eddie is so heartbroken at his father's choice of a fiancée that he runs away from camp. The search for him seems hopeless, and to Tom the hours of waiting and frantic worrying seem endless. News of Eddie's safety at last reaches him, making him realize which girl he really loves. The play ends on a happy note, for this girl is Eddie's choice, too.

NORMAN - MATHERS HEAD PLAY CAST

Eddie will be portrayed by Teresa Norman, and Bill Mathers appears as Tom Corbett. Others in the cast are Helen Leffler, as Elizabeth; Deanna Miller, as Dolly; Linda Schwartz, as Rita; Joe Cato, as Norm; Libby Frederick, as Mrs. Bridges, and Becky Webb as her daughter Helen Ann; Delores Mitchell, as Mrs. Masters; Diana Grant as Alice, Eddie's teacher; Nancy Timberlake, as Becky; Terry Walts, as Mr. Shane; Michael Gieseler, as Mike; Kay Askren as Loretta; Fred Tindall as Cal; Phil Ritz, as Harry; and Max Rusk as Mr. Donnelly.

Tickets for the play will go on sale next week and may be bought from Barbara Hays, Virginia Robertson, Wanda Stevens, or Margaret Meyer. Prices are 40c for students and 75c for adults.

Debaters Will Visit I. U. Conference

Jenny Kirkham, Robert Benton, and Richard Parker will attend the I. U. Debater's Conference on November 1 and 2.

These students are members of the Debate Team, coached by Mrs. Elam, Mr. Saulman, and Mr. Fluhr.

During the conference, students from all parts of Indiana will meet in groups to discuss the national topic, Medicare.

Band Marches

The band marched in the Sesquicentennial Parade at New Albany on Saturday, October 12. On October 26, the band members will participate along with 6000 other high school band members. Indiana University will play a football game with Cincinnati, O. These trips are financed by the magazine sales.

OPINIONS

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor, We are fortunate in our school in having the opportunity to join many varied types of clubs. However, many people take advantage of this opportunity. Instead of joining the club they would benefit from the most, they join whatever club their friends are members of and then attend the meetings only when they want to skip home room. This is the type of member that no club wants to have.

On the other hand, many people join these clubs with the hopes of finding out what a certain profession is like. Finding out now whether you would like a certain profession is much better than spending time and money training for a job which would not be satisfying. These people are willing to make an effort to make a club successful so why ruin their chances by not cooperating and contributing something to the club? To be a good club member you should attend all meetings and functions of the club, offer suggestions and ideas, and be willing to help the officers carry out these plans and ideas. If all club members would be like this, clubs in high school would accomplish their purpose much better than they do at the present time.

MARY WILSON

Dear Editor, Since school has gotten underway and tests are beginning to be given, it is time to start the fight against cheating. Cheating is a well known evil which is getting more prevalent as time goes on. Maybe cheating could be prevented if some of the more common methods were brought to light.

One of the methods is getting the answers from someone in another class because teachers give all classes the same tests. It would create quite a problem for the cheaters if a different test were given to each class.

If there isn't close supervision, the students will ask other students for the answers. Also if the key to the test is left on the desk, the students will look on it. Answers are sometimes smuggled into class on tiny pieces of paper or rolled up in the bottom of a ball point pen. Some cheaters are so brave as to have their book open and lying in the bottom of their desks and when no one is looking they will hunt the answers in the book. Many cheaters have such a well organized system that they can hold up fingers or nod their head to mean they don't know a particular answer. Answers are even written on hands or arms for reference when the cheaters don't know the answer.

If all these other methods fail or can't be used, the cheaters will go so far as to break their necks looking around at other people's paper. Sometimes if their necks aren't long enough a cough or clearing of the throat will have their fellow conspirators in cheating hold up their paper. There might be other methods that haven't been mentioned but these are a few of the more common ones. Since cheating is such an evil and the students themselves don't know or care that it is wrong, then it's up to all honest students and supervisors to watch more closely and look for these methods.

Welcome Mat Is Out

New students! New students! This year's number of new students racks up to a total of twenty-three.

The "sophisticated" seniors have added three new students to their class. Joe Drury moved to Corydon recently from De Sales High School in Louisville. He likes to tinker on cars and plans to attend college after graduation.

From English comes William Mathers. He is interested in music and is enrolled in band. He attended English Sterling High School. William says he likes to watch sports rather than participate in them himself.

Another new spoke in the senior wheel, Carol Miles, moved here from Jeffersonville where she attended Providence High. Carol's parents and her six brothers and sisters moved to Corydon this summer when her father, Mr. Joseph D. Miles, accepted the position as assistant football coach here.

Mike Miles, Carol's brother, joins this year's beanie clan. Like all boys, Mike is interested in sports. Baseball and golf are his favorites. Mike last attended St. Anthony's in Jeffersonville.

Reading is the favorite pastime of Rebecca Webb. Rebecca's father is the new Harrison County Hospital Administrator. She moved to Corydon from Speedway, Indiana.

From North Central we gain Sherry McKim. Sherry now resides in Corydon.

Brother and sister team, Michael and Brenda Holt, add to the rising score of freshmen. They moved here from New Albany where they attended Hazelwood Jr. High. Brenda enjoys horseback riding and swimming. Mike? Well, he likes to putter on cars.

Who is the girl with the big red bow in her hair? Why, that's Norma Windell, a freshman! Her big red bow marks her as one of the two girls who is presently enrolled in agriculture. Norma likes to read and is very interested in animals. She formerly lived in Ramsey and attended North Central School.

The class receiving the highest number of new students is the sophomores. Steve Bodenstadt moved to Corydon from New Albany where he attended Hazelwood Jr. High. Steve likes to assemble model cars in his spare time.

New Middletown gained a new resident in Roslea Cannon. She came to us from North Central. South Central lost Nancy Green this year. Nancy says she likes to read and skate.

To be a physical education teacher is the future vocation chosen by sophomore Cindy Backherms. She and her family had lived in New Middletown before her Air Force father was transferred to Okinawa. Cindy, her mother, and brother, accompanied her father on the trip. When they returned to the states, they lived in Oklahoma. Cindy is presently living near New Middletown.

Swimming, skating, surfing, and skiing are some of the favorite sports of Nancy Sauerheber from California. Nancy hopes to become a beautician.

Larry McLain moved to Corydon from Leavenworth. His hobby is assembling model cars.

Weselin Jr. High in Louisville was attended by Tom Webb before he moved here. Tom likes to work on cars and is considering becoming a mechanic.

Jane Reynolds again joined these new faces. She has returned to Corydon after living a few years in Leavenworth. Her hobbies are reading, skating, and horseback riding.

From across the Ohio comes Carolyn Breeding. She moved here from Fern Creek, Kentucky, where she attended Fern Creek High.

The football team gained two "Miles". One, the assistant coach and the other, junior, Joe Miles.

B. Hays Is Host To French Visitor

During the summer, two students from other schools visited Corydon and Corydon Central. The students, Lynne Mace from Aspen, Colorado, and Christy Monin, from Grenoble, France, visited our town for three days as guests of Barbara Hays. Lynne, who is Barbara's first cousin, has spent this past year over in France, living with the Monin family. For this school year, Christy and Lynne returned to the States to attend Lynne's school in Aspen. This exchange program is not a part of the American Field Service, but was arranged by the girls' parents.

Besides the school, Barbara took the girls to Wyandotte Caves, the Joe last attended Providence High School in Jeffersonville.

Collecting stamps interests William Green. William is originally from Louisville.

From Valley High School in Louisville comes Thelma Carvers. Thelma likes to read and wants someday to become a secretary.

Drama Club Spurs Top Quality Plays

A Dramatics Club has replaced the traditional junior and senior class plays at CCHS. Why was this change made?

There can be only one point in 2 favor of class plays: the privilege 4 of a student has of saying that one is a member of the class producing the play. But when a cast must be selected from among only the very few who try out for a class play, the director is limited, at best. He can work only with those class members who have chosen to offer their talents, no matter how meager these "talents" may be. If the cast proves uncooperative or in any other way unsatisfactory, he has only two alternatives: to struggle along with his unqualified actors and hope for the best, or to dismiss the production entirely. Membership in a Dramatics Club, however, is open to students from all four classes. The director is free to choose the cream of the crop, so to speak, for his play casts; he is not limited to one class only.

In addition, a Dramatics Club offers students a chance to be members for all four years of high school, thus giving them a chance to develop their acting ability. With the former tradition of class plays at CCHS, a student could participate in only two plays, his junior and senior class productions. With class plays, top-quality talent is not always available. A Dramatics Club, therefore, is a logical solution for a school which wants to give consistently top-quality stage productions.

Buy It For A Song

Two hot rods sat quivering at a stop light, their teenage owners eager to be speeding down the highway. Over the roar of the motors, the kid in the hopped up red Ford yelled, "Hey, Tom, that's a pretty fine custom you have there."

"Yeah, I bought it for a song, too. You remember the guy who was killed about a month ago in that big wreck uptown? Well, I picked up his hot rod at a used car lot. I had to do a lot of work on the body; it was a mess, but the motor was in fine condition. I bet it will beat anything on the road."

"Want to prove that?" Jim called as the light turned green. He gunned out with a loud roar, just asking for a drag.

Tom took his dare and went after him. Faster and faster the two cars went, neck and neck down the two lane road. 70 - 75 - 80. Beads of sweat broke out on Tom's forehead. He was scared, but he wouldn't chicken out. Then, suddenly, a truck loomed up right in front of him! No time to turn, to get out of the way! Tom felt a sudden agonizing pain, then nothing.

His hot rod sits on the used car lot again. The body is really mangled, but the motor is good. It can be bought for a song, and the car dealer says, with a little work, it will beat anything on the road.

Has Football Helped?

What value is the athletic program? How many students participate in athletics? Who participates? What has addition of football meant to CCHS? What does the student body give to the athletic program?

Athletics give today's youth an opportunity to develop and broaden his individual qualities through constructive competition. Participation in the program trains the individual how to react under extreme pressure. It trains this person to remain calm during the crucial points — not only while playing — but for the rest of his life.

Are athletics representative of the entire student body? From the 301 boys who attend CCHS, approximately 60 participate in some form of athletics. Thus only one-fifth of the males participate in athletics and two - thirds of the males who do participate, are involved in more than one of the six sports.

Has the addition of football to CCHS brought out more and different boys to athletics? Football has achieved this goal, to some extent. It has brought out 14 boys, who have not participated in sports before. It has been a means for these boys — perhaps too heavy, or too slow — to prove their individual traits. But this is not enough, more boys are needed; not just for football, but for track, golf, cross - country, basketball and baseball.

You, as an important member of the student body, can encourage more boys to participate in athletics by your support of all the sports.

Attention Freshmen!

Freshmen, now is the time to begin considering the work you will do in high school and whether you want to earn an academic or a general diploma. Both meet the requirements of the state, however, the academic diploma requires that the student take additional subjects and make a higher grade average. The academic diplomas require 36 credits and a grade average of C+ (2.5). The general diploma requires the state minimum of 32 credits of passing work.

The academic diploma requires 4 years of English, 2 years of math (algebra and geometry), 2 years of science (biology and physics or chemistry), 2 years of history (U. S. History and world history) and 2 years of the same foreign language in addition to general requirements.

First State Capitol building, the Constitutional Elm, and the Glass Plant. This tour also included a dip in the Country Club Pool. Barbara showed the girls our school rooms, gym, and library. Both girls were very impressed with the grounds and athletic fields.

Christy's answer when asked what she thought of America was, "Big!"

The academic diploma is rated much higher with colleges. Students are much wiser to take the academic course if they plan to further their education. The graduating class of 1963 was the first to graduate under this new two diploma system.

Many '63 Grads Are Located

We have been able to trace the whereabouts of some of last year's graduates. We found that most of the graduates entered in one of three fields: college, occupations, and marriage.

Those entering Evansville College are Joe Brown, Tom Kirkham, David Limeberry, and Larry Miller.

Five boys are attending Purdue University. They are Bruce Cabell, Gerry Eckart, Walter McCollum, Larry Miles, and John Winterkorn.

Jane Carden and Virginia Reed have enrolled at Indiana University while Geraldine Moore is going to the I.U. Extension in Jeffersonville.

Virginia Barrow and Linda Carter are attending a Beauty College in Louisville.

Vaughn' Brengman, Frank Kumm, and Mike Mathews may be found in an electronics school.

Martha Burgette is taking Nurses Training at the Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis.

The following girls are attending Business College: Barbara Eckart, Sharon Goodman, Gloria Gurtz, Judy Kintner, and Sandra Padgett.

Marabeth Ledford and Ford Miles, class of 1962, have chosen Vincennes College to further their education.

Judy Bliss has entered Oakland City College; Jim Boley is enrolled in Pensacola Junior College in Florida; Robert Demaree is studying music in Marion College and Dennis Finn, who won a scholarship to Vanderbilt College, is enrolled there.

Robert Kinder and Patrick Pearson are students at Murry State College. Lynnette Hill chose Indiana State where she will take teachers training. Allen Keller is enrolled at Northwestern University in the School of Business Management.

Kentucky Southern College will be the future home of Carolyn Lawton. Charlene Russell, whose family now live in Louisville, has chosen Indiana Central College. Nylene Cotner is enrolled in the School of Music at the University of Louisville.

The following 1963 graduates have entered the state of matrimony, Thelma Albin, Sharon Allen, who now lives in Japan, Grace Harris, Larry Schmidt, Mary

Robertson Heads Future Nurses Club

The Future Nurses' Club met Thursday, October 10 to elect officers for the coming year. Virginia Robertson, past president was unanimously elected for another year as head of the organization. Deloris Mitchell defeat d Barbara Hays for the office of vice-president. Nancy Ernstberger was defeated by Donna Schillmiller for the position of secretary. Barbara Hays was selected as reporter.

The girls discussed films that had been chosen for the year. They also discussed the hospitals that they planned to visit. The seniors were urged to get their applications in to the colleges and hospitals that they planned to attend.

Lawyers Club To Be Organized By Elliott

Mr. Elliott, our head football coach, is organizing a lawyer's club. This club will be for those students interested in learning more about the law profession. One of the objects of the club will be to help the students improve their ability to express themselves. Mr. Elliott wants interested members who are willing to learn, not those who just come in to kill time and get out of their home room. The club will meet every second and fourth Thursday of the month. Interested students are invited to join.

Smith, Trina Taylor, Ann Neukam and Linda McCollum are wearing diamond rings on the third finger of their left hand.

The following graduates have been employed by the Keller Manufacturing Company: Verne Amy, Jack Bill, Tom Enlow, David Franks, Glenn Franks, Willis Tindall, and Alfred Walker.

The local banks have given employment to two members of the class; Carolyn Barrow is working at the Corydon State Bank. Donna Faith, The Old Capital Bank. Deanna Frederick has employment at the Bell Telephone Company in Louisville. Mike Hamilton has a job in Chicago. William Miller is employed at the Auto Sales in Louisville.

Walter Smith is working at Kint-

Y-Teens Organize Home Furnishings For Years Work Studied By Home Ec. Students

The Y-Teens (Young Women's Christian Organization) met in the gym for their first meeting of the year on October 7. Mrs. Reimold, the Y-Teen sponsor, recognized the 1963 officers for the benefit of the new members: president, Evangeline Franz; vice-president, Sharon Stilger; secretary, Eileen Stilger; treasurer, Sandra Wallot; reporter, Sandra Kaegin; chaplain, Mary Bulleit; and song leader, Pat Baxley.

The purpose of the club was read by Mrs. Reimold. It is as follows: "To build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians.

In this endeavor we seek to understand Jesus, to share His love for all people, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God."

The project of collecting from packages or letters five-cent commemorative stamps or any other stamp of greater monetary value will be resumed this year. One hundred stamps sent to Foreign Relief will furnish five hundred cups of milk for children overseas who are not fortunate enough to otherwise receive milk.

A Halloween party will be held in the cafeteria for the Y-Teens on October 30 from seven to nine p. m. Costumes are to be worn by the members and prizes will be awarded to the ugliest, funniest, and most original costume.

The refreshment committee for the party consists of chairman, Mary Bulleit, Eileen Stilger, Jane Douglas, Crissy Davis, and Jean Logsdon.

Sharon Stilger is chairman of the decorating committee. Others on the committee are Rosemary Lowe, Sandra Wallot, Janet Scott, and Sandra Kaegin.

Janet Alvin, Margaret Brown, Patty Baxley, and Ann Brown are serving on the program committee, along with the chairman, Evangeline Franz.

ner's Service Station and Jeffery Timberlake is employed at the Big Four Tractor Company in Mauckport.

Ronnie Owens and Larry Pfeiffer are living with Uncle Sam for the next few years.

Frederick Elected GAA President

The first meeting of G.A.A., Girls Athletic Association, was held Tuesday, October 8, in the gym. The main purpose of this meeting was to elect officers for 1963 - 64. Officers chosen are Libby Frederick, president; Sandy Yeager, vice-president; Margaret Meyers, secretary; Kay Mitchell, treasurer; and Judy Fisher, reporter. The purpose of G.A.A. is to satisfy girls in high school who are interested in a more extensive program of physical education than can be provided in the regular physical education class. Mrs. Betty Byrd is the G.A.A. sponsor.

The Home Furnishings Festival in Louisville's Convention Center was attended by Mrs. Ludlow's Home Economics IV class and Mrs. Byrd's Home Ec. III class on October 10. The show was sponsored by twenty-three leading stores in the Louisville area. The show lasted approximately two hours and displayed model rooms designed by Louisville's foremost decorators, arrangements design ideas, wallpaper, accessories. . . everything that has anything to do with decorating a home. Also, exhibits featuring rare skills, award winning rugs and paintings, antique locks, keys, and tapestries from the White House were shown.

The latest in furniture styles, which included Spanish, Hawaiian, Ultra-modern, modern, Traditional, and French Provincial, were included in the models.

Green, red, and blue seemed to be the dominating colors of most rooms and furnishings.

Others who went were Mr. Byrd, Mr. Ludlow, Mrs. Love, Mrs. Cato, and Howard Winter who drove the bus.

Future Teachers Serve At Luncheon

Members of the Future Teachers of America served at the luncheon given by the Lambda Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma. They were Suzanne Windell, Sheila Timberlake, Sheila Flanagan, Kathy Wilson, Diana Richert, Kay Mitchell, Darlene Bentley, and Barbara Pfeiffer.

The Lambda Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma, a national organization for women educators, gave a luncheon here one Saturday, October 5. The Lambda Chapter includes women from Scott, Floyd, Clark and Harrison counties. Fifty women educators attended this luncheon. Among the women attending this luncheon were Miss Mary Eskew, Mesdames Wilma Gleitz, Gail Enlow, Mary Margaret Jones, Belle Bruner, Hattie Mossler, Ruth Morris, Eleanor Albin, Wilma Windell, Marcella Jennings, and Frances Smith.

Mr. Winter Has New Helper

Mr. Winter has recruited a new helper. The new recruit is Larry Dyer. He can be seen during the noon hour performing his duties in the cafeteria. He is especially adept at cleaning up milk bottles.

Golf Is Relaxing

Mrs. Enlow has been practicing day and night to give the golfers at the Corydon Country Club a little competition. She drives to the golf course in her new '63 F-85 convertible.

"ZZZZZ"

"ZZZZZZ" Mr. Bickel has a "sleeping beauty" in his fifth period economics class who awoke to find himself in sixth period government! He made his next class—English—barely on time, and was wide awake—"ZZZZZ" (Sweet dreams, Jim).

New Fad Started

Diana Gibson must be trying to start a new fad. She went skating with her skates on the wrong feet and she couldn't figure out why her feet were hurting. This is one fad that will never catch on. I hope!

New Star Discovered

A new star has emerged. David had his sling shot—the cross country team has its whirlwind flash, Bill "Moose" Davis. He recently broke the magic 13 minute barrier (necessary for making the basketball team) by a whole 50 seconds. Congratulations "Flash"!

The Mid-Southern Conference cross country meet to be held October 16 promises to be one of the most exciting in recent years. Besides bringing together some of the toughest in the conference's history, this meet will serve as a rematch between Scottsburg led by Jeff Rogers and McKinney led Brownstown. In the first meeting of these teams Brownstown defeated Scottsburg, but Rogers edged out McKinney. Pushing Brownstown and Scottsburg for top honors in the conference meet with strong teams from Paoli and Salem.

In one of the biggest upsets in the sports world the Dodgers swept the series in four games from the mighty Yankees.

The Mid-Southern Conference football championship is a battle between Clarksville and Mitchell. If Clarksville gets past Paoli Saturday 19 the deciding game will be between Clarksville and Mitchell the following Saturday night. Leading Mitchell will be Terry Cole, the scoring machine. Besides being able to move his 6'2", 205 lbs. at 10:3 clip in the 100 yard dash, Cole is the leading scorer in Southern Indiana. Clarksville will have its human battering ram, 247 pound Dave Taylor. Both boys are top college prospects.

Basketball has once again returned to Corydon and with it comes eight lettermen from last year's Panthers. The senior lettermen out for basketball this year are Bill Davis, Jack Fried, Phil Merk, Dean Rupp, H. V. Withers, and Dumont Wolfe. Also returning this year are junior lettermen Joe Cato and Roger Jenkins. As you know Cato, Fried, Withers, and Wolfe held down starting positions last year. With these lettermen and help from promising juniors the Panthers should have a very good season.

The Corydon Panther basketball schedule will have two new teams for the '63-'64 season. These new teams are Campbellsburg to be played November 22 and Oolitic who will be played November 29. These teams will take the places of New Albany, who was dropped from our schedule, and the second with Silver Creek. Again this year the Panthers will participate in a holiday tournament. This year Corydon will travel to Scottsburg where they will compete with Scottsburg, Austin, and Salem for the championship December 27 and 28.

Corydon Falls To Clarksville

The Corydon Panthers dropped their second game in as many starts Saturday, September 28, to a strong Clarksville team by a 14-0 score. Another huge crowd of over a thousand was on hand to cheer the Panthers on.

Despite Corydon's greatly improved defense Clarksville managed to score once in the first and once in the fourth quarter. Twice Corydon stopped Clarksville scoring drives within the twenty yard line, but were unable to begin a scoring drive of their own.

The first General touchdown came with three minutes left in the first quarter. Corydon, at the 2-yard line, stopped a Generals scoring drive and took possession of the ball. On the first Corydon play, Bradley Heid of Clarksville intercepted a Corydon pitchout and went easily over for the touchdown. On the attempt for the PAT Wayne Forrest bulled his way through the Corydon line for the extra point.

Most of the action during the second and third quarters took place about mid-field. Twice, however, Corydon seemed to be on their way to a touchdown but were halted both times. The Panthers drove to the Clarksville twenty-one yard line before the half ended, and in the third quarter they pushed their way to the 11.

Late in the third quarter Clark-

MATHEWS RETURNS A PUNT — Jim Mathews, (30) junior Corydon halfback, starts upfield with a punt return in Corydon's 23-0 win over the Salem reserves. Mathews scored two touchdowns in Corydon's first win of the season. The other Corydon player identified is Curtis Pearl (12).

Panthers Drop Salem Reserves To End Season

The Corydon Panthers whipped the Salem reserves 27-13 on October 16, to conclude the season.

Corydon's record is now 2-3, both wins being over Salem. This was Corydon's first football team in fifty years.

The game was over after the first half as far as Corydon was concerned. They had piled up a 21-0 lead.

Dale Sonner was the big gun in Corydon's attack as he scored two touchdowns, one being a 74 yard runback to open the second quarter.

Corydon scored first when Joey Miles went over from the four yard line after Mathews made two long runs to set up the touchdown. The PAT was good as R. Parker completed a pass to Ralph Timberlake.

The next Panther touchdown was a two yard plunge by Dale Sonner. Again Timberlake and Parker teamed up for a successful pass for the extra point.

R. Parker of Corydon concluded the scoring in the first by rolling around right end 10 yards for the touchdown. The PAT was good.

The most exciting play of the game came when Dale Sonner ran back a kickoff 74 yards for a touchdown to open the second half.

Both Salem touchdowns were scored in the fourth quarter against Corydon Reserves.

Clarksville began a scoring drive which was climaxed early in the final period. Clarksville's second touchdown came on a pass play from Bill Croft to Tom Vanest. Once again Forrest scored the PAT to end the scoring.

Coach Elliott said he was very pleased with the team's performance. "The boys played the kind of game that I had predicted," said Elliott, "but this Clarksville bunch brought a stronger team than did Bloomington.

Corydon's improved defense was spearheaded by Curtis Pearl who was aided greatly by Nick "Spider" Kintner. Once again Joey Miles turned in another good game both offensively and defensively.

Bloomington Whips Fighting Panthers

Bloomington University reserves handed the Corydon Panthers a 21-13 setback on October 12 at Bloomington.

On the opening kickoff Corydon was shocked by a 70 yard run for a touchdown by Bloomington's Bob Hendrick. The PAT was good and Bloomington held a 7-0 lead.

The Panthers received the kick off and were quickly forced to punt. Joe Miles responded with a booming forty yard kick.

Bloomington took over on their own 23 yard. On the next play the Unives fumbled and Corydon's Dave Eastburn recovered on the 15 yard line. Joe Miles then went 15 yards for a touchdown. The conversion was unsuccessful.

The second quarter was a standstill as neither team could score.

Bloomington struck early in the third quarter with John Carter going over tackle from 7 yards out into pay dirt. The conversion was good on a pass play.

Corydon retaliated by scoring on a brilliant forty yard pass play from Richard Parker to Richard Windell. Dale Sonner ran the PAT over to cut Bloomington's lead to a scant 1 point 14-13.

In the fourth quarter Bloomington scored again on a 3 yard plunge by Gary Keen. This was the clincher.

Corydon's record is now one win and three losses.

Corydon: Touchdowns—Joe Miles (15, run); Richard Windell (20, pass run from Richard Parker). Conversion—Dale Sonner (run) Bloomington U.: Touchdowns—Bob Hendrick (70, kickoff return); John Carter (7, run); Gary Keen (3, run). Conversions—Andy Pizzo (pass); Keen (run); Rick Ritchison (run).

Attention, all coke lovers! A national crisis is at hand. A few students almost lost their lives while the coke machine was shut down. The only way for these students to protect their lives is to be on the look out for people who fail to return the empty bottles to the coke rack. Let it be known that the coke rack is the place for cokes. It is up to the students who enjoy drinking cokes to see to it that a few uncooperative "smart alecs" do not deprive them of this privilege. There are a few students who think it is smart to leave the coke bottles scattered everywhere. 41 Something should be done to stop these individuals and show them that there are rules of society that must be obeyed. These students 0 had better learn this now before they get any older and the police authorities have to teach them that rules are made to be kept. Everyone be on the look out for these people and make them put up their bottles, or report them to the office if necessary. Perhaps this will prevent the coke machine from being closed a second time.

Student Handbooks Are Important

Do you own a Student Handbook or are you one of those who has not even the foggiest idea what a Student Handbook is?

The Handbook contains a tip sheet of information on almost every facet of CHS life—from fire drills to lockers. It explains in detail the state requirements for education as well as specific courses of study.

Organized student activities are also explained; these activities range from the Student Council to the Girls Athletic Association. Eligibility for honors, awards, and scholarships are also covered.

A special section has been devoted to athletics and discusses the code of sportsmanship, the Indiana High School Athletic Association, cheer leaders, student managers, and ticket distribution.

The Student Handbook is designed to acquaint pupils, parents, and other interested persons with the school program as a whole. It can be a valuable guide to the pupil in planning his secondary school program wisely—if the pupil will use it.

Ed.'s Note: Some students evidently do not realize that these handbooks are required. The price is 60 cents.

Mathews Leads Corydon To Win

The Corydon Panthers scored in each of the four periods to blank the Salem reserves 23-0 for their first win of the season. This is also our first football victory in fifty years. Corydon's record now stands at one win and two defeats.

Jim Mathews was responsible for Corydon's first touchdown which came in the first quarter. Corydon stopped Salem near mid-field and forced them to punt. Mathews grabbed the punt on his own 40 yard line and with fine blocking ran sixty yards for the touchdown. On the attempt for the PAT Richard Windell and Richard Parker teamed up with a pass play for the extra point. At the end of the first quarter the Panthers led 7-0.

Early in the second period Salem gained control of the ball deep in their own territory, Salem then attempted an end sweep which turned into a Panther safety as Terry Walts smashed through to down Bob Arnold in the end zone. This made the score 9-0.

Soon after the second half Corydon scored again. Joey Miles scored this time as he broke loose and a brilliant fifty yard run for the T.D. The Panthers also scored on the PAT by Dale Sonner to make the score 16-0.

The Panther's final score came late in the final period. With a fourth and seven situation Richard Parker dropped into punt formation. But instead of kicking, Parker hit Mathews twenty-five yards down the field. Mathews then raced easily for the touchdown. Again Sonner ran the PAT to finish the scoring.

CROSS COUNTRY SEASON ENDS; LOCALS BEATEN

The Corydon thimlies running their last dual meet of the year were edged by Springs Valley 26-31 on October 8. Springs Valley runners captured 1st, 2nd, 4th, 7th and 14th places for a winning total of 26 points. Dumont Wolfe was the first Corydon runner to finish by taking 3rd. Jack Fried and Gary Preston took 5th and 6th places respectively. H. V. Withers and Joe Cato finished out the scoring for the locals by capturing 8th and 9th places.
