Jenny Kissed Me Will Be Presented By Dramatics Club

Nov. 4, 8 P. M.

JENNY KISSED ME, a three-act comedy written by Jean Kerr, will be presented by the Dramatics Club at 8:00 p.m. on November 4.

The play is about a charming young girl who comes to live in the household of an elderly priest. She has been brought there by her aunt, a scheming but faithful housekeeper. Jenny, age 18, is the precise opposite of the kind of smart sophisticated young miss that puzzles and exasperates Father Moynihan.

The plot is concerned with the priest's clumsy endeavors to make Jenny attractive to the boys. Studying feminine magazines and getting pointers on feminine psychology and new fashions, he is so successful that he nearly overplays his hand. A romance runs through the play, which ends in the engagement of Jenny to an attractive, somewhat older man who, trying hard to be fair and give Jenny a chance to meet eligible youngsters, almost risks losing her. But this man had been Jenny's choice from the first. Her consenting to go out with an amusing but over-enthusiastic follower of jive has been in the line of duty, and the youth's amusing antics end up by boring her.

The play is made doubly amusing by several young girls and the young boys mentioned above, all of whom manage to make Jenny "hep". Or rather, so they think, since Jenny remains to the end a simple and attractive girl, and her union with the man she loves is a proper solution to all the plots and plans of the various characters.

Cast Members

Members of the cast are Delbert Hayden, Father Moynihan; Mark Wiseman, Michael Saunders; Nancy Timberlake, Jenny; Bonita Brockman, Mrs. Deazy; Brooks Rainbolt, Owen Parkside; Carol Miller, Sister Mary of the Angels; Missy Forsythe, Shirley Tirabossi, Barbara Pinaire, Miss Sterns; Betty Martin, Mary Delaney; Mary Lou Miles, Harry; Jane Swisher, Jo; Cheryl Haun, Priscilla; Susan Curtis, Jane; Billy Blair, Mr. Parkside.

The play is being directed by Mrs. Elam. Play practice started on October 4, and will continue five nights a week from 7:00 to 9:00 until the play is presented.

Becky Webb is in charge of the tickets. The prices are 75 cents for adults and 40 cents for students.

First Place Rating Won By Marching Band

The Corydon Central Marching Panthers won a first place at ISMA marching contest Oct 8 at Jasper. This is the first time that our band has ever received a Division I rating at such a contest. Mr. Trueblood said he entered the band this year in order to gain experience and then go for a Division I next year. Four bands before Corydon received second place ratings so the director and the home band were also prepared for a second. When the announcement was made "Corydon Central Division I" the excitement started. The band members, wearing medals and sporting a trophy, returned home to celebrate in a police-escorted victory ride on fire engines.

The Marching Panthers have also performed at the sesquicentennial parade, the state fair marching contest, Coney Island, a parade at New Albany, and most of the home football games. Not only have they marched at the football games but they have also given the booster club much support with their yelling and playing. This is our first year to enter the state fair contest and out of over eighty of the top bands in the state, we finished fifty-fourth, which is exceptional. However, to be in band is not all travelling and winning first places. It takes hard work from both the members and director. The band practiced from two to five nights a week this summer and since school has started they have had many after school and night practices.

The band will also play at basketball games and other contests this winter. They will not do as much marching as they have been because winter isn't marching season, but will instead focus on playing instead of marching.

It is a privilege and an honor to be in band and not anyone can get in or stay in. The members are rated on a point system and in order to remain a member one must maintain a certain number of points. Points are subtracted upon failure to be at a practice or a performance.

EACH INDIVIDUAL BAND MEMBER must do his part in order for the whole band to be outstanding, however there are certain members that have special duties who deserve recognition. The majorettes are Anita Fisher, Melissa Forsythe, Brenda Quebbeman, Deena Kinkade, Debbie Ferguson, Sandy Watson, Sherry Cline and Kathy Cline. The drum major is Mike McGraw. The band president is Don Harper, the vice president is Dennis Stepro, the secretary is Anita Fisher, and the treasurer is Harold Hall. However, all the members agree that the person who works the hardest is their director, Mr. Trueblood, who has been at Corydon for five years. He is originally from Salem where he played the trombone in the high school band and he graduated from the University of Louisville where he played in both the band and orchestra.

Juniors Select Belle For Prom

The Junior - Senior Prom will be held, as was the 1966 Prom, on the Belle of Louisville, Saturday, April 22, 1967.

The Juniors voted for the Belle by a large majority over the gym. April 22 has been set as a definite date unless there is a cancellation on some Friday during May.

AEW Program Set For November 8

Parents Invited

American Education Week, November 6 - 12, will be observed here at CCHS on Tuesday evening November 8, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

During those hours, parents and friends will be invited to the High School to visit classes and meet the teachers. Members of the FTA will serve as guides to the visiting parents. The parents will follow the same class schedule as their children. Each class period will last about ten minutes and the teachers will give a short summary of the important phases of the course and answer any questions of the parents.

Guests will also go to the gymnasium for an assembly program, just as students do. At that time the band and chorus will perform. Remarks will be made by Mr. Saulman and Mr. Schneider. Refreshments will then be served in the cafeteria.

fifty cents each, will be number one money-making project for the class.

Mrs. Gleitz is chairman of the 1968 class; other sponsors are Mr. Phillips, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Fluhr, Mr. Lander, Mr. True, Mr. Miles, and Miss Gibbs.

Upperclassmen Take College Board Exam

Two tests from the College Entrance Examination Board are being administered at Corydon Central this year. On Tuesday, October 18, the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test was given. The Scholastic Aptitude Test will be given November 5.

The PSAT is primarily for juniors but seniors in the National Honor Society are also taking the test. The National Association of Secondary School Principals sponsors a scholarship for Honor Society members based on PSAT scores.

Scores from this test are useful in making college plans because they are a reliable prediction of SAT scores. The PSAT is also good experience for college admission tests and gives the student an idea of what to expect of the SAT.

The Scholastic Aptitude Test is a three-hour test given to college-bound seniors. There are two divisions: mathematical and verbal. These scores will be sent to the colleges the student indicates on the answer sheet.

The SAT is usually given in December, January, March, May, and July. Test centers in Indiana, however, are giving the examination in November for students who want to apply to colleges and receive an early reply on acceptance and financial aid.

A Non-Conformist Is Not A Follower

By MARK WISEMAN

Just what is a non-conformist? We have all been told since the first year of school about the trouble involved with "following the crowd". Again and again we have heard parents and teachers say, "Now remember, when you're out with a group and someone offers you a drink, or maybe a cigarette, don't conform! Don't go along!" Now this is all well and good, and truer words were never spoken. However, is this the most important thing to being a non-conformist? A broad definition of non-conformist is given as a person who does not act in accordance with prevailing standard or custom. Could it be that there is another phase of conformity which has not been made so obvious? Perhaps it is something deeper and actually more important than the idea of taking a drink under pressure from your friends.

Imagine that you have just been hired by a large department store; a job you need badly. After a week you begin to realize that the manager of your department is fixing records and shipping orders. This allows him to pocket quite a bit of money. Since he is popular with the owners, to reveal his activities would probably result in the loss of your job. Yet this man is hurting your department and you are losing some commission. All of your friends say you would be foolish to report the manager. If you have a strong sense of duty, you would uncover the manager because it is what you feel is right. To act the way 'you' think is right is what really matters. You must think for yourself. Be an individual, not just one of the group.

"A people, it appears, may be progressive for a certain length of time and then stop. When does it stop when the people lose their individuality." This statement was made by John Mill and means that when no one takes leading steps, a nation ceases to advance. You might say, "If I talk and act as I believe, I will some-

Marmelstein Speaks Out

Those of you who are taking part in the pre-school walk-a-thon will be happy to know that the coaching staff has some old track shoes which you may borrow. For all freshmen and new students, the walk-a-thon is the contest among approximately two-hundred students to see who can start at the Coke machine, walk up the first floor hall, up the stairs by the biology room, walk down the second floor hall, walk down the stairs by the teacher's lounge, and end up back at the Coke machine as many times as possible before the first period class takes up. The record so far is 1,963 completions in 27 minutes.

An enraged Ruth Marmelstein had this to say on the subject, "I think the walk-a-thon should be encouraged because it is a program worthy of encouragement. It is beneficial to those who participate in it because it benefits them. Thank you." (Ed. note: The Pantherette would like to extend its thanks to Miss Marmelstein, without whose help this column would be completely understandable.)

times become involved in quite a bit of trouble and worry. I will lose friends and actually make new enemies." The only way you can avoid criticism is to say nothing, do nothing, and be nothing!

This type of non-conformity is not as clear cut as the regular don't smoke, cuss and drink type. It is often un-certain and obscure. However, if you understand yourself, and have a set of morals by which you live, you should have no trouble knowing what is right and wrong. Emerson once said, "Whoso would be a man, must be a non-conformist."

How To Win Friends and Influence People . Is this your kind of book? Maybe you should look over the Opinion Poll and editorials in this issue.

OPINION POLL FRIENDSHIP IN HIGH SCHOOL

"What is a friend?" was the question asked in this month's opinion poll. The replies were as follows:

ANITA FISHER, a senior, felt that "A friend is a person with whom one can feel safe. He must be able to cheer you when things go wrong and forgive you as often as you need to be forgiven. He is faithful in times of trouble as well as in happiness. A friend must love you for what you are, or what you are not."

LINDA ENDRIS, also a senior, declared "I think of a friend as being a person whom I can confide in and can always count on. I consider a person who is thoughtful, kind, reliable, and honest as the best friend anyone could ever have. They are people who try to understand you and want the best for you. I always value their opinions highly even though I disagree at times. My friends are people whom I find hard to live without."

JILL MOSS, a junior, conveyed her opinions of a friend as . . . "someone you enjoy being with and who in turn enjoys being with you. He is the one you like to talk to, to discuss anything and everything that happens to you. A friend is always by your side whenever you need help or when things go wrong. He is a person who makes happy times happier and unbearable times more bearable. A friend is with you, through thick and thin.

As a famous man once said, "The light of friendship is like the light of phosphorus, seen plainest when all around is dark."

BILL KIRKHAM, junior, said "In my opinion a real friend has two important traits. He is trustworthy and honest. By trustworthy I mean that you can depend on him to help you when you need help the most. By honest I mean that you can believe what he tells you. He always tells you exactly how he feels, even though it may hurt you or be contrary to what you believe."

JOYCE MCINTIRE, a freshman, also believes that a friend is someone who is trustworthy and honest. She explains, "You should be able to depend upon a friend not to tell the world the secrets that you confide to them."

RITA BATES, another freshman expressed that "a friend is someone who is loyal to you. You can trust a friend with secrets which you don't want revealed. He is someone to whom you can talk with about your troubles and know that they will remain a secret. Friends don't do unjust things such as stealing, cheating, or lying."

JEANIE MILES, freshman, declared that "A friend is someone who can be counted on and trusted. He is loyal, not only to his close friends but also to everyone."

The Many Facets Of Friendship

DECIPHERING FRIENDSHIP

By MARY BROCKMAN

Friendship is a topic which has often been discussed by the great thinkers of the world, past and present. In studying the logic of several of these philosophers I have found them in agreement on several basic ideas.

The most common of these is expressed by Caleb Colton, an eighteenth century English clergyman, saying, "The firmest friendships have been formed in adversity; as iron is most strongly united by the fiercest flame." Many times a casual acquaintance develops into deep respect between two people who are thrown together by a common tragedy. Perhaps this is because most individuals discard the mask they usually show to the world when they are faced with trouble. It is much easier to love a person when he displays his true self. Also, two people frustrated by the same misfortune can understand each other better than an onlooker can.

Many philosophers agree with Thomas A. Becket that, "Better are the blows of a friend than the false kisses of an enemy." Hypocrisy is intolerable in any relationship. The person commonly called "two-faced," who plays a dual role by being your good friend until your back is turned, is gaining neither the friendship of the one he talks to nor the one he talks about. Instead, he loses the respect of both.

Edvard Grieg, a Norwegian composer, said, "When we are young, friends are, like everything else, a matter of course. In the old days, we know what it means to have them." Perhaps, we as high school students should meditate on this. Do we take our real friends for granted? Many times, I think we do. Many young people are easily influenced by others because of a desire to be associated with the "big wheels." He leaves his true friends to join the "in" crowd, only to realize that satisfying friendships cannot be bought. This realization is often accompanied by another: good relationships cannot be expected to thrive after they have been uprooted.

Thousands of words have been written about friends but I believe Emerson sums up the subject in these few words: "The only way to have a friend is to be one."

MODERN - DAY FRIENDSHIP

By BROOKS RAINBOLT

Are you my friend? This might be a hard question to answer because many people don't really know what friendship is. Some synonyms of friendship might be intimacy, good will, and understanding. However, friendship has a different meaning to everyone.

Friendship can be either a good type or a bad type. "Honor among thieves" is definitely a bad example of friendship. There are those students who distort friendship in many ways. Students that collaborate with each other in school work may interpret this as friendship. But this is only rationalizing in a sense that the student is really trying to help himself along.

Friendship in the purest form is a relation in which all parties would rather help another person than be helped themselves.

Now let's look at occasional friends. An occasional friend always seems to be around when he isn't needed. An occasional friend may give aid or advice where it isn't needed. These so-called friends never seem to be around when the going gets rough.

Friendship can often become confused with duty or service. School officials may often not be your friend, but they do take an interest in you as an individual and are therefore not your enemy.

In our highly mechanized and scientific world, friendship is often lost in red tape and the general speed at which we live. Moral decay in the American teenager is also a growing problem. It seems that the "help one another" attitude is becoming old fashioned.

The practice of friendship should become habitual with all of us. Without friendship everyone would be living for themselves and this would be very boring in this world and country where there is so much to do.

Name — CHIQUITA
Age — Sixteen months
Color — Sorrel
Home — One mile west, Highway 62
Owner — Miss Puryear

Chiquita was born June 2, 1965, just three days before I returned from a year's study in Mexico City. She was a complete surprise since my mare had been bred by my father without my knowledge. Upon my return June 5, I went straight to the farm to visit my mare. With my mother, brother, and father trailing along after me, I should have guessed something was up, but as I approached the mare a little brown creature jumped up and I slumped to the ground in shock. My parents vowed never again to surprise me. Chiquita and I both recovered from our emotional introduction and spent almost every day of the following three months together.

She is no blue blood but neither is her master — wrong word — slave.

Further Education

1966 Grads

Members of the 1966 class are scattered far and wide. About twenty per cent have enrolled in colleges and universities.

Evansville has enrolled Darlene Bentley, Virginia Crosier, Ronald Kellem, Linda Kirkham, Roger Mauck, Carla Miles, Deanna Miller and Mike Miller.

Alice Harrell, Nancy Keller, Randy Leuty, Teresa Norman, Elizabeth Ward, and Kathy Wilson are attending Indiana University. At the Indiana University Regional Campus in Jeffersonville are Alma Engleman, Becky Faith, Kathi Monahan, Diana Richert, Beverly Windell and Martha Yates.

Attending Vincennes University are Bill Fisher, Max Rusk, Terry White and Suzanne Windell.

Among those attending other colleges and universities are Merile O'Bryan at Western Kentucky; Tim Kirkham and John Walter are at Murray State; Kay Mitchell is attending Ball State; Bertie Godby has enrolled at Indiana State. At the University of Louisville is Ronnie Rainbolt. Nick Kintner is attending a junior college in California. Bill Mauck is at United Electronics. Max Brown is attending a school of highway technology. Connie Rainbolt is taking nurse's training at Norton's Infirmary in Louisville.

Business schools have enrolled the following. Carol Longacre is at Sullivan. Evelyn Andriot is taking an IBM Data Processing course at Spencerian. Marsha Carter and Linda Fleanor are attending Bryant and Stratton. Bernetta Reas, Roslea Cannon, and Kathy Parker are attending beauty school.

National Honor Society Initiates New Junior Members

The efforts to make the announcement of new members a surprise seems to have worked in Missy Forsythe's case. Just above Missy is Jill Moss and below her is Betty Martin — both new members.

The senior members of the National Honor Society inducted seven members of the junior class into the organization at a candlelight service during an assembly on September 29.

This exclusive club chose five per cent of the junior class for membership. To be eligible for National Honor Society a student must have a "B" average, then from the "B" group members are selected who are judged highest in character, service, and leadership. These members are not only in the top of their class but are also very active in other things.

TOM ALTON is taking six subjects this year with French III, Analytic Geometry, and Physics being three of them. He is a member of the Math Club, French Club, and Science Club. He is also active in track, and football.

MELISSA FORSYTHE has been in band three years and majorette for two years. She was also a cheerleader her freshman year.

She was president of her class her sophomore year. She has been a member of dramatics club for three years and has been in most of the plays.

ALAN HESS is one of the most athletic boys in school. He has lettered in track, baseball, cross country, basketball, golf, and is playing football this year. He won the Buleit Free Throw award last year. He was president of his class his freshman year and is vice-president this year.

BILL KIRKHAM is also very active in sports. He plays basketball and golf. Last year he received the Most Outstanding Basketball Player award. Both last year and this year he has been an officer of the student council.

BETTY MARTIN, who went to Europe last summer, is president of the junior class this year. She is secretary of the French Club and has been in Dramatics Club for three years.

The main activity of JACK MILES is his golf. He has won many tournaments and has received the Outstanding Golfer award for two consecutive years. He also plays basketball.

JILL MOSS has been cheerleader for two years. She represented her class last year as candidate for basketball queen and will represent them this year as their homecoming queen candidate. She was treasurer of her class her freshman year and is treasurer of the French Club this year.

As a symbol of their achievement, these members were given a yellow rose, the National Honor Society's flower. These members are expected to maintain high principals of character for the rest of their lives.

It would be wise for all freshmen and sophomores to take an active interest in whatever they do so that they can become members of this club in the coming years.

Phys. Ed. Added To Summer School

Credits were earned by 145 students at CCHS this summer. The students attended morning classes for eight weeks beginning June 6 and ending on July 29. Phys. Ed. was added this year with 20 students enrolled. The class was taught by Mr. Wood and held at the Junior High.

Twenty-six students completed the two-semester algebra course under the instruction of Mr. Reagan.

Mr. K. Kirkham had 24 in his biology class. The personal typing class, taught by Miss Rothrock, numbered 26. Mr. Cato and Mr. Wood trained 49 new drivers.

Two credits may be earned in either algebra or biology, one credit in typing and driver training and 1/2 credit for phys. ed.

Chorus Reorganized First Performance Nov. 8 - Open House

After an absence of a few years, a high school chorus has been organized at Corydon Central under the direction of William J. True. At present there are only twenty-two members, but we hope there will be more response in future semesters until the chorus is built up to as large a group as the school has had in previous years. As in band, credits given for taking chorus are one per year.

In the class the students learn the proper way to use their voices as well as the fundamentals of music involved in singing. Many different types of songs will be learned during the school year.

The chorus will give its first performance on November 8, as part of open house observance for the parents of Corydon Central. It is hoped that the group will also be able to give a Christmas program as well as a program in the spring of the school year.

In addition to the chorus class there is also a chorus club made up of students interested in singing which meets on Tuesdays and Wednesdays during activity period. This club has thirty-three members. Members need not be enrolled in the regular chorus class.

Coach Wood's Mother Dies Unexpectedly

The student body and faculty extend to Coach Wood and Mrs. Wood their deep sympathy at the death of his mother, Mrs. Carroll Wood who passed away very suddenly and unexpectedly at her home in Fountaintown, Indiana, October 13.

Future Nurses Plan Year's Work

Bertha Ferree heads the Future Nurses' Club which met to discuss plans for future activities. A committee for selecting and ordering films to be shown was chosen. The committee consists of Dana Albin, Eileen Hall, Bertha Ferree and Janice Gettelfinger, chairman.

Members elected a new vice-president, Dorian Sauerheber, and corresponding-secretary, Lonnie Cavins. Lonnie will write to several hospitals and health centers expressing the club's desire to visit their medical clinics. Other

Future Farmers Elect Class Heads

The Future Farmers of America, fifty-seven strong, are the most thoroughly organized of any of the other clubs in school. In addition to the chapter officers each class has their own set of officers.

Class Officers

Kenneth Sauerheber heads the senior group of officers. Others filling offices are Mike Eastburn, vice president; Bill Owen, treasurer; Chuck Harbeson, secretary; Melvin McKim, reporter and Steve LaSalle, sentinel.

Juniors are headed by Robert L. Wiseman. Serving with him will be vice president, Max Edelen; treasurer, Robert Shewmaker; secretary, Wayne Fravel; reporter, Terry L. Schmidt and sentinel, Frank Bill.

Dallas Garmon has been chosen president of the sophomore group. With Garmon will be Larry Stiles, vice president; Billy Dodds, treasurer; Arthur Barks, secretary; John Meadows, reporter and Randy Hunter, sentinel.

The freshmen have chosen the following: John Kintner, president; Randy Coffman, vice president; Mike Mills, treasurer; Robert McCarty, secretary; Virgil Smith, reporter and John Rossbottom, sentinel.

Mr. Arthur Windell, vocational agriculture teacher, will sponsor all of the F.F.A. work and activities.

Don Harper Heads Student Council

The Student Council's first meeting of the year was concerned with the election of officers. Senior, Don Harper was elected president with seniors, Dennis Stepro, vice-president and Jeanne Hoehn, secretary-treasurer.

The program for the next meeting will be given by Janice Gettelfinger. She will present facts that she obtained this summer at the leadership training post at Indiana University. Her trip was made possible by last year's Student Council.

Officers elected previously are Lorraine Saffer, secretary-treasurer and Eileen Hall, reporter.

Keep Up With Club Activities

Citizenship Prog. Planned By FHA

The theme for FHA for this year is "Citizenship Around the World". To carry out this theme the club has planned a government test, films on citizenship, guest speaker, and a foreign student to visit the club.

One of the money making projects have just arrived. The club is selling Christmas cards, stationery, and terry cloth calendars for '67.

Officers for the coming year in the Corydon Elm Chapter of the FHA are: Carolyn Lang, President; Debbie Carter, Vice President; Barbara Lang, Secretary; Paula McCarty, Treasurer; Linda Fulkerson, Parliamentarian; Ramona Yates, Reporter; Beverly Robson, Projects Chairman; and Judy Pitman, Historian.

District Meeting

Four of the officers attended a district meeting at Sellersburg, Silver Creek High School October 15. This was a workshop where officers learned more about their duties. Officers attending were Carolyn Lang, Paula McCarty, Donna Kintner, Judy Pitman, and Miss Gibbs, club sponsor. The sessions consisted of skits, singing, goals for FHA, state and national projects for the coming year and workshops.

Miss Gibbs Speaks On European Tour

Miss Gibbs, home economics teacher, spoke at the Y-Teens October 17 meeting. She told about her tour of Europe this summer.

The Home Economics room will be the scene of the Y-Teens Halloween initiation party October 26. The initiation committee is Diana Emily, Dianna Hunter, Paula McCarty, Linda Fulkerson, Betty Kennison, Shirley Fluhr. Those girls being initiated are Donna Crone, Beverly Crone, Mary Lawton, Donna Kintner, Beneta Owen, Naomi Greer, Karen Wise, Belinda Beeler, Fern Melton, Frances Neely, Mary Neafus, Wanda Wiseman and Wanda Fulkerson.

After paying their dues, the girls become members of the Y W C A and are free to use their facilities.

Latin Club Changes Name

To See Dr. Zchivago

"HUMANITES," the newly organized Latin Club, has forty-two members. The purpose of the club is so the members might have additional opportunity to study the humanities in the fields of literature, art and music. Members of the club must have had one year of Latin or presently taking Latin I.

A Latin newspaper is being published and sold by the club for 10 cents. The money from the paper and from dues will be used for trips and also for National and State membership.

Officers for the coming year are: Consul, Frank Sandullo; Co-consul, James Pfeiffer; Scripitor, Robert Rothrock; Treasurer, Mike Monahan; Reporter, Sam Eckart; Program Chairman, John Eckart; Projects Chairman, Barbara Lang, Constitution committee, Diana Hunter, chairman, Wayne Hannel, John Eckart, James Cavins.

Plans are now being made for a trip to Louisville to see the movie, "Doctor Zchivago".

Lynn Anderson Gives Math Prog.

The Math Club was organized again this year under the sponsorship of Mr. Reagan. Club officers are Mary Brockman, president; Barbara Pinaire, vice president; Denise Melton, secretary. The Math Club meets on the second and fourth Tuesdays every month. At each meeting, one of the members takes charge of the program, discussing some phase of mathematics not usually covered in class. The requirements for membership is successful completion of Algebra I.

For the first program, Lynn Anderson gave an impromptu discussion of the probabilities in playing cards. He illustrated various poker hands and then found the mathematical probability of producing such a hand in actual play.

Members of the French Club have already ordered pen pals from France.

Science Club Adds Trips - Speakers To Club Projects

This year the Science Club, sponsored by Mr. Newton, will be headed by Harold Hall. The purpose of the club is to increase interest in the science department and to provide information not covered in class for students with a special interest in science. Requirements for membership are that a student must be at least a Sophomore with better than a C-plus average in science. The club plans to feature guest speakers and field trips to universities and companies outstanding in the department of science.

Other officers are Dennis Stepro, vice president; Bertha Ferree, secretary; and Judy Cato, treasurer. Representatives from each class were also elected. Mary Brockman is the Senior representative; Tom Alton, Junior; and Lynn Anderson, Sophomore. They will meet to write a constitution for the Science Club.

FOR SALE

"Tom Wate" Kits

"Tom Wate" kits will be sold by the FBLA members during three weeks of November. These kits contain everything from ink pens that write eight colors to stuffed animals. The club will also be in charge of the coat check at the basketball games.

FBLA officers for the coming year are Barbara Overton, president; Linda Endris, vice president; Carol Miller, reporter; Brenda Gillespie, historian; Kris Kline, senior representative; Pam Richard, junior representative; Lillian Lasley, secretary; and Jeanne Hoehn, treasurer.

At the October 13 meeting, Jeanne Hoehn, Barbara Overton and Anita Fisher gave speeches in order to obtain their leadership degree.

Pen Pals Ordered By French Club

Officers for the coming year were elected at the first meeting of the French Club. Judy Cato will head the Club with Nancy Timberlake, vice president; Betty Martin, secretary; Jill Moss, treasurer; and Becky Cato, reporter.

The French Club is open to second and third year French students and meets on the first and third Thursdays. Miss Nolen, the French teacher, sponsors the club.

All Classes Gain New Members

For the '66-'67 school year, CCHS has gained seven new students from other schools. The freshmen have gained two new members, and the sophomores have three, while the juniors and seniors have received one each.

Dale Kraft, freshman, comes from Sellersburg and Mike Pophan is from Palmyra. Dale attended school at Silver Creek before moving south of Corydon this summer. Dale's main interest is cars and he hopes to become a mechanic after graduating from school. Mike Pophan comes from Morgan Township. He has cars, sports, and music as favorites on his list. Mike also likes to design cars and hopes he can widen this interest after graduation.

Special note to sophomore girls: your class gained three boys. The boys are Bradley Reas, Marvin Reynolds, and Steve Porter. Bradley comes to us from Georgetown. He lives four miles south of Corydon with his four sisters, six brothers, and his parents. Bradley keeps busy helping with the farm work.

Marvin comes to us from across the river in Louisville where he attended Southern Junior High School. Marvin now lives in Corydon on North Capitol with his parents and two sisters. Marvin had attended school here in Corydon when he was in Junior High. Although he wants to go out for cross-country, this year his big interest is horses. After high school he would like to attend college and then teach history in Texas or Florida where he could also own his own.

Steve Porter comes from our neighboring state of Illinois. Steve attended North Central High School in Danville, where he was student manager of the basketball team. Steve lives with his parents, a brother and a sister about a mile south of Corydon. He likes golf, tennis and playing the guitar.

Belinda Beeler is the new junior from New Salisbury where she attended North Central High School. She now resides here in Corydon with her sister and brother-in-law. Besides the sister she lives with, she has four other brothers and sisters. Belinda's hobbies are reading, dancing, and oil painting.

The senior class has gained a Southern belle from Jackson, Mississippi. Her name is Rebecca Watson and she attended St. Joseph's High School in Mississippi. Rebecca's family consists of her parents, a sister and two brothers. She lives on Woodlawn Avenue here in Corydon and she is interested in travel and music. After graduation this spring she plans to attend Quincy College in Illinois. Rebecca wants to be a psychiatrist or to work with handicapped children.

Vigorous Campaign Precedes Election

The race for 1967 class officers was one of the most vigorous of recent years. Each candidate had a well-organized campaign of posters, buttons, electioneering, and other forms of publicity.

Mark Wiseman was chosen to head the class of '67 by defeating Don Harper. The vice-president, Anita Fisher, was elected over Delbert Hayden. Carol Miller defeated Steve Higginbotham to become senior secretary-treasurer.

Betty Martin will lead the juniors this year. She was victorious over Becky Eckart, Cindy Robson and Ellen Olson. Supporting Betty as vice-president will be Alan Hess, who defeated Brenda Winterkorn. By winning over Missy Forsythe and Monty Schneider, Pam Fisher will be secretary-treasurer.

Sophomore Bonita Brockman defeated Larry Gleitz and Walter Frank to become president of her class. Vice-president Anita Watson was victorious over Karen Timberlake and Lynn Anderson. Barbara Pinaire defeated Robert Rothrock in the race for secretary-treasurer.

Treggie Miller will head the freshman class. She defeated Rita Bates, Howard Dismang and Leo

SPANISH CLUB DRAFTS NEW CONSTITUTION

Denise Melton will head the Spanish Club this year with Delbert Hayden, vice president and Jane Swisher, secretary.

Delbert Hayden, Donald Abbott, Norma Windell, Joyce Saulman, and Anita Watson were appointed to write the Constitution and present it to the club for adoption. Penny Melton, Elaine Miller, Betty Sonner, and Karen McCoy were appointed the program committee to plan the club's activities. Judy Pitman, Debby Blank, Tom Emily and Cindy Robson are to choose several names for the club to adopt.

C-Club Chooses Queen Candidates

The C Club has selected the four girls who will be candidates for the '66 Homecoming Queen Contest. They are senior, Nancy Timberlake; junior, Jill Moss; sophomore, Mary Ruth Fisher; and freshman, Jean Marie Miles. To select the candidates the C Club members first nominate several girls from each class. Then from each group one girl is chosen to represent her class in the contest. The final voting then goes to the Booster Club and athletes. The girl chosen as Homecoming Queen will be crowned at the half-time ceremony during the game with Brandenburg tonight. The girls will be escorted by the basketball players and the winner, after being crowned, will receive a bouquet of roses and a gift to serve as a remembrance of her reign. According to the by-laws established last year the school shall have a Basketball Queen one year and a Homecoming Queen the next year. Candidates come from all four classes and no former queen may be elected again.

Panthers Drop Fourth To Rams

The Panthers were handed their 4th defeat in 7 outings by the Paoli Rams 32-13. The Rams found they had their hands full from the National Anthem. Panther quarterback Mike Miles shocked the Rams on the opening kickoff with a dazzling 88 yard touchdown run. His conversion gave the upset-minded Panthers a 7-0 lead in the first 14 seconds of play. Pete Akers also had a four-yard run for the Panthers in the second quarter. Corydon held the lead at halftime even though Doug Moore of Paoli scored two touchdowns himself.

In the third quarter Mike Roberts of Paoli blew the game open with scoring runs of 29 and 13 yards. Doug Moore added the clincher in the last quarter to make the score 32-13 as the Panthers never made the scoreboard again that night.

Mitchell Downs Corydon 28-13

The Corydon Panthers felt the sting of the Mitchell Bluejackets September 30 as they dropped a 28-13 decision.

On Corydon's second play, quarterback Mike Miles tore loose for a 53 yard touchdown run. He also kicked the extra point to put the Panthers ahead 7-0. Mitchell retaliated by returning the Panthers kick 83 yards for the first Mitchell score to tie the game 7-7.

Later in the first quarter Mitchell moved the ball 60 yards in 5 plays, scoring on a pass from Dunbar to Reynolds to lead 14-7.

Mike Miles broke loose again in the second quarter and bolted through the line for a 59 yard touchdown run. The point after was good and the Panthers trailed 14-13 at halftime.

In the third quarter the Panthers stopped a 75 yard Mitchell drive on the 7 yard line, but after the Panthers failed to move the ball, Mitchell returned the punt to the Corydon 3 yard line. The kick was good and Mitchell led 21-13 Mitchell scored again in the fourth quarter and moved the ball 53 yards in 11 plays.

Miles led the Corydon running attack with 151 yards in 15 carries. Pete Akers carried 9 times for 55 yards. Corydon's leading rushing gainer Bill Baelz carried the ball only four times for 11 yards as he remained on the bench due to a sore ankle, knee, and elbow injured in the game.

Panthers 12 Madison 7

The Panthers captured their third win of the season by defeating the Madison Cubs, 12-7, on the Corydon gridiron. This victory, on October 7, evened the Panther record to 3-3.

In the first half, the Panther defense and offense was not effective because, in the words of Coach Miles, "We did not know what to expect." During the first half, Assistant Coach Bob Bixler was observing the Madison patterns from the pressbox and was able to help in planning new strategy for the second half.

At the start of the third quarter, the Cubs led the Panthers 7-0 but the Madison team didn't get to the goal line again that night. Madison's drive was stopped when a fumble was recovered by senior John Mathews. The first touchdown was made when quarterback Mike Miles sent a 25-yard pass to Doug Bates in the end zone. The kick was no good, so Corydon still trailed by one point. The Panthers stopped the Cubs again by a fumble recovery. Miles made runs of 25 and 23 yards before he made a 5-yard dash for the victory touchdown.
