TOTAL IS 604

Junior Enrollment Leads — Frosh Next

The 1964 total high school enrollment of 604 is down six students from the opening total 1963 enrollment, which was 610.

The juniors have the largest enrollment with 165 in the class. The freshmen are the second in size with 162; seniors number 144 and the sophomores have enrolled 133 students.

In the Fall of 1960 when the present seniors entered high school, they numbered 177. Their sophomore roll-call was also 177. In their junior year they had dropped down to 162 and now, the question is — how many of the 144 will receive diplomas in May?

The present juniors began their freshman year with 172 enrolled. Their roll-call was answered in their sophomore year by 162 students. This year they have gained three members.

The sophomore class entered CCHS in 1963 with a total of 136 enrolled. They begin this year with 133 students.

Musical Opens Assembly Series

Charles E. King will present "Music in the Air", an unusual musical assembly program, October 19.

Mr. King does more than sing beautifully for his audiences; the real impact comes from what he has his audience do for him. The effect is so great that one sees members of the group look at each other in amazement as if to say "Can this be US? Singing?"

Before getting into school work, Mr. King toured Europe and the United States as director of the

Students Help To Celebrate Citizenship Day

Citizenship Day of Constitution Week was observed over radio station WPDF, September 17 at 10:05 A.M. by the Federated Woman's Club and members of Mrs. Elam's speech classes and Mr. Bickel's government classes.

Mrs. Olive Byers, formerly the head of the History Department at Hammond arranged the program. Also taking part in the program were Mrs. Newton Fowler, president of the Federated Clubs of Harrison County, and Mrs. Hazel Reasor, president of the Corydon Literary Club.

In 1956 President Eisenhower set aside Constitution Day to honor our citizenship. In his proclamation he asked that all religious, civic, patriotic, educational, and other organizations arrange appropriate ceremonies on this day to give the citizens of the country a better understanding of our rights and responsibilities as citizens of the United States; and also asked that the people give solemn and grateful expression of appreciation for that eventful week in September, 1787, when our constitution was signed and delivered to the Constitutional Convention.

The Corydon High School students in addition to taking part in the question and answer part of the program gave two choral readings "God Give Us Men" and "What It Means To Be An American!" Those students on the program were as follows: Richard Blank, Reaugh Kopp, Floyd Beanblossom, Russell Bentley, Barbara Baxley, Nancy Ernstberger, Vera Richard, Janet Scott, and Robert Watson.

"Wings Over Jordan" choir. He has appeared on the Ed Sullivan show, on the Arthur Godfrey Talent Scout program, and in the movie Carman Jones.

Pantherette Joins Press Association

The North Central Association of Secondary Schools, of which we are a member, has certain rules regarding the election of class officers. For this reason our class elections are being conducted in a different manner this year.

All students who wish to run for office have been instructed to turn in their petitions two weeks before the election. By doing this each student will have two weeks to build up his support.

Senior Class Gives Electric Water Cooler

A new electric water cooler has been installed in the lower lobby thanks to the class of 1965 and their junior sponsor, Mrs. Gleitz. Through the sale of candy, the class made enough money last year to carry them through the 1964-65 school year, pay for the prom, and have enough money left to purchase the new water fountain.

The school matched this gift by purchasing a similar cooler for the upper hall. The total cost of both coolers was around $380. The new fountains, unlike the old ones which they replaced, electrically cool the water and have provided ice water on even the hottest day.

New Improvements Brighten Gridiron

The Panther football field has taken on a new look this season. The enclosure of the field with a chain link fence topped with barbed wire, has facilitated the collection of admission fees to games, which are used to finance athletic functions.

The football team is enjoying the newly installed lights on the gridiron. The seventy-two lights, which give the field a daytime appearance, serve a double purpose: games can be scheduled at night adding to the comfort of the players, and enable more fans to attend.

Corydon also intends to be a good host this year. New bleachers have been added on the opposite side of the field for visiting fans. This is also in anticipation of the increased popularity of football in Corydon.

OPINIONS

TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

It is my contention that the students of CCHS are lazy. Never before has it been so evident that so many students are doing as little as possible and in some cases absolutely nothing.

Speaking from the standpoint of a student, I feel that this is an unbiased observation.

A high school such as Corydon Central offers benefits of all kinds to its students: a strong academic education, training in manual and business occupations, and extracurricular activities including sports, which are invaluable in character building as well as physical development.

Some students would gladly attend school for an additional semester in order to attend all the classes that would be beneficial or interesting to them. Others work hard for two, three, or even four years carrying six subjects with two study halls. Why do students refuse to get an education which benefits only them?

Lack of interest in sports is also prevalent. Few boys are showing interest in the fall sports. Little do they realize, without participating, the benefits they receive from such activities as football, cross country, or basketball. Natural talent is not a prerequisite for any sport. Many people have potential ability that is wasted, because they never give themselves a chance to develop it. No one becomes a star overnight. A great athlete is the result of long, hard practice and training.

Of those few students who are willing to exert themselves enough to become a member of a team, there are always some who are not man enough to last the whole season. This season's football team had several quitters who were not willing to sacrifice a little to gain a lot.

However, the fault lies not only with boys. All students should have a feeling of responsibility toward backing a school team. What kind of attendance have our football games had?

These are the things that prove students to be lazy, unwilling to take advantage of benefits offered to them.

I hope the students arise against critics such as I, and prove that the students of CCHS can be and are conscientious workers that wish to attain the highest physical and academic abilities of which they are capable.

Future Homemakers Attend Convention

Indiana University was host to 900 Future Homemakers of America attending their state convention, June 15 and 16. Those who represented the Corydon Elm Chapter were as follows: Helen Kintner, Southeast District parliamentarian; Linda Kintner, chapter secretary; and Donna Fravel, chapter treasurer. The girls were accompanied by their chapter advisor, Mrs. Patricia Ludlow. The theme of the convention was, "Your Home—a Key to the Future."

Anderson - Mathers
Tryout For Bands

James Anderson, a 1964 graduate, is one of the one hundred sixty-two freshmen that are trying out for the Purdue Military Band. Purdue's "All American" Marching Band, one of the nation's largest, will have more than three hundred members. Bill Mathers, another 1964 graduate, reported to Indiana University on September 8 for a two weeks band camp. This camp has been held each year since 1956 for I.U.'s Marching Hundred Band.

Students - Faculty
Welcome Teachers

Corydon Central students and faculty have put the welcome sign out for seven new teachers this year.

Appearing on the teachers side of the desk for the first time and adding some young faces to the faculty, are Misses Sally Harrison, Peggy Cunningham, and Mr. Al Belskus. Mrs. DeFoor, Mr. Phillips, and Mr. Lander are recent college graduates and have been in the profession only a short time, while Mr. Miles is a teacher of some experience.

If you hear "Bonjour classe, comment allez-vous" floating in the door of 212, you will know it is the voice of Miss Sally Harrison, our first French teacher. Miss Harrison, who attended high school at Presentation Academy in Louisville, is a 1964 graduate of Catherine Spalding College where she majored in French and minored in English. In addition to her teaching duties, she will also help Mrs. Elam with the drama club.

Working with the Junior Red Cross for nine years has been one of Miss Harrison's main interests. She also enjoys sports, especially volleyball, tennis and swimming.

Miss Harrison lives with her mother in Audubon Park, Louisville.

Joseph D. Miles, last year's assistant football coach and Junior High basketball coach has assumed the jobs of head football coach and freshman basketball coach.

In addition to his work as coach, Mr. Miles is teaching biology, physical education, and health, which was his major in college. He also had a minor in social studies. He received his B.S. from the University of Louisville after attending Hanover College. He is now working on his M.S. at Indiana University.

Before moving to Corydon, Mr. Miles taught and coached at Shawnee High School in Louisville and Brewersville.

Coach Miles has brought us two fine football players in Joe, a senior, who plays fullback and Mike, a sophomore, who plays quarterback and halfback. In addition to the players he also has brought a booster section consisting of his wife and five other children, Janie, Carol, Mary Lou, Jean Marie and Bobby.

Local Teachers
Will Be Hosts
To Area Meeting

The Classroom Teachers' Organization of the Central School Corporation will be host to a dinner meeting of the Indiana Classroom Teachers Area 14 Workshop on October 1, 1964. Registration will begin at 5:30 P.M. Dinner will be at 6:00 P.M. in the High School Gym.

Mr. William Hodge from the National Education Association will be the main speaker. Following his speech there will be buzz sessions for discussing the role of teachers' organization.

The workshop this year is planned to give special recognition to the younger members of the profession—those with not over three years of experience. The program will feature information concerning work being done by the professional organizations at national, state and local levels. Young teachers will be given an opportunity to ask questions.

The dinner will be served by Mrs. Glenna Windell and her staff, assisted by F. T. A. volunteers.

Mr. Al Belskus also has chosen to begin his career at CCHS. His 6'7" frame will be one of authority over the students taking commercial courses this year. Mr. Belskus will also assist in coaching our football and basketball teams.

This spring Mr. Belskus received his B.S. degree from Indiana State Teachers College. There he majored in business and minored in physical education. Before entering college, Mr. Belskus went to Wiley High School in Terre Haute.

Mr. Belskus resides in Corydon with his wife and nine month old son, Stuart Wayne.

Charles Phillips is beginning his second year of teaching. Last year he taught and coached at Heth-Washington. Mr. Phillips will teach World History, physical education, and first aid in addition to serving as assistant football and head track coach. He is a graduate of the University of Louisville where he earned his B. S. degree. His majors are physical education, economics and sociology.

Mr. Phillips also attended Centre College for two years during which time he received honorable mention as an All-American football end. He was named to the Louisville All-City football team while playing at Atherton High School and he played one year of professional football for the Louisville Raiders.

He is married to a former Corydon student, Suelen Shuck, and has a two year old daughter, Cari Dawn.

Ask Yourself?

Editor's note: This editorial was written by John Winterkorn, 1963 Pantherette editor, who has recently finished his freshman year at Purdue with scholastic honors.

be successful with only this preparation.

How can I best prepare for college? This question is asked every day by hundreds of high school students. With the many helpful guidance counselors, parents, and older brothers and sisters around, these students receive numerous excellent answers. However, by having so many correct answers for the same question floating around, it is no wonder these students sometimes become confused. To distill all of these answers into one pure, all inclusive solution is difficult but necessary.

The same holds true in preparing for social acceptance in college society. The person, who has spent his time learning how to talk to people, make friends, and become the accepted "swell guy", will find that these preparations will not bring him college success. He will find it easier to adapt to college social life; however, there is more to college than social success.

One of the first answers to be given to a student is STUDYING. "Study your math... Study your English... Study your history... Study, Study, Study!" Now don't misinterpret — studying is a very necessary preparation for college, but it alone is not the best preparation. While no person will be successful in college without studying preparations; no person will

The best way to insure college success is to adopt a Half-Way + Plus attitude. By instilling this attitude in yourself, social activities, studying, and other good college preparations will naturally follow. The Half-Way + Plus attitude is a willingness to meet people half-way and then some. Whether in school work, social activities, or future earning of a living, this attitude will be of aid to you. Doing what is expected of you and then just a little more will result in better relations with teachers and professors, more social friends and activities, and lasting preparations for college and life.

Our new art teacher, Mr. Sam Lander, came to the Central School Corporation from Louisville where he had taught for five and a half years. He attended Murray State College in Kentucky where he was a member of Alpha Tau Omega, a social fraternity, and Kappa Pi, a honorary art fraternity. Attending Hopkinsville, Kentucky, High School Mr. Lander was a member of the National Honor Society and the Key Club of Kiwanis sponsored boys' club.

At the present, a new job, his first home on North Capitol, and his first son, three month old Hugh Robert, occupy Mr. Lander's time, talent, and interests. Mr. Lander is married to the former Barbara Bickel, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bickel.

Mrs. Eleanor DeFoor is the new Spanish teacher at Corydon. Besides teaching three Spanish classes, she also teaches two freshman English classes.

Mrs. DeFoor has a B.A. degree from the University of Louisville where she graduated magna cum laude. She also attended Furman University in Greenville, S.C. Her majors are in English, humanities and social studies; she has minors in history and Spanish.

Mrs. DeFoor commutes from Anchorage, Kentucky, where she lives with her husband and four children. Her husband who is a Baptist minister is attending a seminary there.

Teaching, driving, and caring for four children leaves little time for leisure, but when those moments arrive Mrs. DeFoor likes to read or sew.

She replaces Ray Noe who resigned to accept a teaching and head coaching job in Henryville, Ind.

Walts Will Head Student Council

Terry Walts will be president of the Student Council for the year. He was elected by the Council members on September 21. Other officers chosen are Billy Fisher, vice-president and Sharon Wallot, secretary-treasurer.

The Council members elected by the home rooms as their representatives are as follows: seniors, Terry Walts, Nancy Kirkham, Russell Bentley, Linda Cavins; juniors, Tom Butt, Billy Fisher, Randy Leuty, John Powell, Sharon Wallot; sophomores, Keith Chanley, Kathy Kline, Sherry Shaffer, Lester Rhoades; freshmen, Virginia Bruce, Bill Kirkham, Jack Miles, and Monty Schneider.

In addition to their home room representatives the senior class will also be represented by the three class officers, who have yet to be elected.

The purpose of the student council is to take the students' grievances to the administration. However, unless the students take their problems to the student council, the council cannot function properly. Therefore, if you have a legitimate complaint, make sure your student council representative knows about it.

Besides handling student complaints, the student council also chooses the assembly programs. This is advantageous in that the student council is more likely to choose programs that the students enjoy than would the faculty.

Mr. Norman is the student council sponsor.

Indian Creek Conquered, Saulman Designs Bridge

Mr. Saulman, principal of the high school, designed a suspension bridge which has been built across Little Indian Creek over to the playground on Rice Island. He was assisted by Mr. Broglin, shop instructor, and Herman Kost, maintenance superintendent. High water and floods have destroyed several bridges in the past.

The new bridge, built six and one-half feet above the creek bed, should be able to withstand floods.

The tearing away of the old bridge and its concrete supports and the actual cost of building the new bridge was financed equally by the school and the town.

Panthers Lose To Blackhawks

The Panther football squad opened their first varsity season at Springs Valley on Sept. 5. After four quarters of play the Blackhawks had downed the Panthers 9-0.

Early in the first quarter the Blackhawks took possession of the ball on Corydon's 32-yard line. They gained only one yard on the first play. On a second down, Valley's Charlie Radcliff took a hand-off on a reverse and raced around left end on a 31 yard run for a touchdown. An attempt for an extra point was blocked by Nick Kintner.

Throughout the first half the Panther offensive unit was unable to penetrate the Blackhawk defense to a threatening position. Late in the first half the Blackhawks managed to get the ball on the Panthers' 15-yard line. On a third down with eight seconds to go, quarterback Bill Harris kicked a field goal from the 22-yard line. The Blackhawks led at the half 9-0.

Weakened from the absences of Jerry Parker and Dale Sonner, the Panthers were outplayed in the first half. They scored only 4 yards rushing and 14 yards passing, while Springs Valley gained 67 on the ground and 17 in the air.

In the second half the Panthers not only held, but outplayed the Blackhawks. Dale Sonner entered the game at halfback and gave Corydon some running power it had lacked. Quarterback Jim Mathews, aided by Dale Sonner, and Joe and Mike Miles in the backfield, led the Panthers in successful drives throughout the second half. Sophomore Mike Miles gained the respect of his teammates and many fans as he led the outstanding Panther drive of the night. While playing quarterback, Miles directed a 59-yard drive from the Panthers' 24 to the Blackhawks' 7-yard line.

After exchanging possession of the ball several times with the Blackhawks, the Panthers finished the second half with the score still against them. However, they proved their ability in the statistics. In the second half the Panthers outgained Springs Valley 97 yards to 73 on the ground and had 5 first downs to Springs Valley's 4.

In the defensive unit several players stood out. Joe Miles got more than his share of tackles from his position at linebacker. Terry Walts, who is also a strong offensive man, played a strong middle guard with a few unbelievable tackles. Nick Kintner, an end, blocked a punt and a PAT attempt.

The Panthers had a few players who were unable to play because of injuries. Jerry Parker suffered a broken leg three days before the game, and will be a great loss to the Panther rushing power. Junior Marc Smith sat on the bench with a cast on his right hand protecting a broken bone. Freddie Smith had been absent for several weeks recovering from an appendectomy.

Rogers Sets X-C Record

The Corydon cross-country team was defeated by Scottsburg on Sept. 11, 39 - 19. This was the first setback of the season for our cross-country runners. Jeff Rogers of Scottsburg set a new course record by clipping off the two mile course in 9:58. However, Alan Hess and Monty Schneider turned in excellent times of 10:23 and 10:27 respectively. For Corydon, Hess finished fourth, Schneider, fifth, Bob Watson, ninth, Larry Pendleton, tenth and Joe Cato, eleventh.

The Corydon Central High School Cross Country team has compiled a record of two wins against one loss this season. The team is coached by Ralph Cato.

Frosh Spark Cross Country

For the first time in several years Corydon is enjoying the good fortune of having a winning cross-country team. Strangely enough it is being made possible by the running of two freshmen. Alan Hess and Monty Schneider finished first and second in their first varsity race, and have continued to improve with each race.

Jeff Rogers who is probably the fastest runner in the state beat both Alan and Monty by less than thirty seconds. Both boys have extremely good attitudes, and if they continue to improve there is no reason why they should not place in the top ten in the conference.

Panthers Defeat Clarksville Generals

The Corydon cross-country team defeated the Clarksville Generals 24 - 31 on September 15. Individual honors were taken by Bobby Shorter of Clarksville, who ran the course in 10:13. Corydon, however, took the next four places. They were as follows, Alan Hess, second, Monty Schneider, third, Gary Preston, fourth, Bobby Watson, fifth. Finishing out the top five for Corydon was Larry Pendleton, who finished tenth.

Corydon's next meet will be Thursday, Sept. 24 at the Paoli Invitational.

New Improvements Made This Summer

Improving and renovating kept the maintenance crew busy at the high school during the past summer. This is the first major work done on the building since the students moved in nine years ago.

The most noticeable improvement is the painting, crystal green, of the class rooms.

A new platform type floor has been laid in 212, and the room has been insulated so that the boilers below will not make the room too warm for use. This makes the room suitable for a language laboratory; machines for this will be installed later in the year.

Also, hand tools have been purchased for the shop to be used in plastic and leather crafts. Band saws and a new jig saw have also been installed. Cabinets for the storing of supplies have been built and installed on the east wall in the office.

Cheerleader Tryouts Will Be Held Oct. 6

Every girl will do an individual yell, a group yell, and the school song. Three people will be selected.

Junior Rotarians

Joe Cato, Russell Bentley, William Lang and Pat Moss, members of the senior class, have attended Rotary on Tuesdays for the preceding three weeks and will continue to do so throughout the month of September.

Robert Benton, Terry Walts, Jerry Parker, and Larry Neal will attend Rotary during October.

Gridders Upset In First Home Game

The Corydon Central Panther football team was looking forward to its first varsity victory last Friday at Corydon, but were surprised by the upset-minded West Washington eleven, who went home with a 6 - 0 win.

Led by the running of Bill Packwood and the quarterbacking of John Trinkle, West Washington gained more net yards — 161 to 130 — than Corydon. The winners gained 97 yards rushing and 64 yards passing. Packwood, who carried the ball 23 times, personally gained 112 yards on the ground, but losses by other players held West Washington to 97 on the ground. Trinkle engineered the West Washington touchdown with three passes and a 4-yard run into the end zone. Setting up the touchdown, Corydon had elected to run for a first down on a fourth-down-and-nine-yards-to-go situation on Corydon's 30-yard line. Dale Sonner picked up only five yards, and West Washington took over on downs on the 35-yard line. Trinkle hit end Larry Goen on two quick passes in the center that picked up 23 yards to the 15-yard line. He then threw to Brad Gill for 11 more to the four-yard line, and then ran around his right end for the touchdown. The point-after-touchdown attempt was blocked.

The Panthers had their best opportunity to score near the end of the game. Corydon got the ball on the West Washington 29 - yard line after Trinkle fumbled and recovered on a fourth down. Corydon moved the ball to the 16 for a first down with less than one minute left in the game. A West Washington penalty and an 8-yard run by Sonner put the ball on the two-yard line. But the game ended before the Panthers could push the ball across for the touchdown.

In the first half the Panthers held a substantial edge in yards gained with 98 to West Washington's 49. But 50 yards of penalties held the Panthers away from scoring.

Brooks Rainbolt Studies Photography

Brooks Rainbolt, a member of the sophomore class, attended the Yearbook Workshop at Indiana University July 26 through August 8. Brooks, who will be the Pantherette photographer this year, spent most of his time at the workshop in the field of photography.

Mr. Robert O'Bannon of the Corydon Democrat paid the seventy-five dollars necessary to send Brooks to the workshop.

Second Down Six To Go

The Panthers suffered their second defeat at the hands of the Salem Lions 18-7.

The determined Panther defense stood out during the first half as they held the Lions to a 6-0 lead. The first score came in the second quarter on a pass-play. Quarterback Bob Menaugh threw a 27-yard pass to end Jerry Kross, who then ran 15 yards for a touchdown. The PAT attempt was unsuccessful.

The Panthers began the second half with renewed strength and spirit. It looked as if they were going to hold Salem to one touchdown. Then late in the third quarter, as the outnumbered Panthers began to weaken, the Lions scored again after an 85-yard drive. After three first downs, a 21-yard run by Gary Rosenbaum, and a 29-yard drive by Larry Blevins, Rosenbaum plunged 5 yards for Salem's second touchdown. Again the PAT was unsuccessful. Larry Blevins scored for Salem in the fourth quarter following a 61-yard drive by his teammates. For the third time the Lions tried for a PAT and failed, leaving the score 18-0.

It was hard to discourage the Panthers, whose pride and determination would not allow them to be held scoreless against rival Salem. After the third Salem touchdown, a kickoff was received by the Panthers and taken to the 25-yard line. After two first downs, the Corydon fans realized that nothing was going to stop their team. Salem also became concerned and put in their first string defensive unit. This only made the Panthers more determined. They pushed the ball to the 8-yard line. Fullback Joe Miles then carried the football and two Salem tacklers the last 8 yards for Corydon's first varsity touchdown. He also ran the point-after-touchdown attempt. During the drive from Salem's 25-yard line, Miles carried the ball seven times for 50 of the 75 yards gained. The game ended in favor of the Lions, 18-7.

For the whole game, Miles gained 71 of Corydon's 121 yards. He punted four times for an average of 42 yards a punt. On defense he accounted for over ten tackles. Other defensive players responsible for over ten tackles were Terry Walts, Tom Butt, Pat Moss, Mike Miles, Nick Kintner, and Roger Mauk.

Again injuries reduced the Panther numbers. Tackle Ken Coffey, a strong defensive player, suffered a broken collar bone in the first half, and will be out for the remainder of the season. Sophomore Bill Baelz saw limited action because of a bad knee. He will be out indefinitely, suffering from a pulled ligament.

In the second half the running of Packwood kept West Washington controlling the ball and they gained 112 yards to Corydon's 32. The Panthers got only one first down in the second half, and that was in the last minute when they drove for the end zone. Corydon threw two passes and did not complete either one, but Trinkle tossed seven, completing five for 64 yards.
